Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2100504	Possession Marijuana/hash Oil/hashish/	On 01-09-21 officers conducted a traffic stop at the intersection of E Morgan Ave and N Weinbach Ave after observing a white BMW run a red light at the intersection of Oak Hill Rd and N Weinbach Ave. After further investigation the driver, Angie Dillard, was found to have an active misdemeanor warrant. 1.3 grams of a green leafy substance, that later tested positive for THC, was found inside of the vehicle. Two blue pills identified as Alprazolam (Schedule 4 substance) were also found inside of the vehicle. The vehicle was towed to Tri-State Towing's tow yard and Dillard was transported to the VCCC for the active warrant, marijuana and the controlled substance.	MANSFIELD, M.
Found Property	Found Property (C), at 1921 E Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 21:06, 01/09/2021 and 21:10, 01/09/2021. Reported: 01/09/2021. No victims listed.
LW 2100472	Theft	Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to a person with a gun. Central Dispatch advised that a subject was inside the gas station with a gun, and the reporting party was outside on a party bus. Central Dispatch advised that the person with a gun was possibly a clerk who worked at the gas station, and that the party bus was currently leaving. Officers arrived on scene and met with four males who worked at the store. The males at the gas station stated that they had gotten into an argument with the party bus, as they were parked blocking cars in the parking lot. When the male approached the party bus, he stated that he was struck in the face by six males. Officers observed a minor cut to this lip, and slight redness on his face. The victim stated that he did not wish to press charges, and did not want medical attention. Officers had made contact with the party bus, and they stated that the clerks had attacked them with a hammer, and then went inside to get a gun, and pointed it in the direction of the bus. No one on the bus had injuries, or wanted to press charges. Camera footage from the gas station showed one of the males grab the gun from inside the store after being hit, and point it in the direction of the bus. Officers located one handgun, and one BB gun on scene in plain view. From the surveillance video, it was determined that the clerk had pointed the BB gun at the bus, not an actual firearm. The clerks at the store stated that they did not know who the actual handgun belonged to, and that someone who used to work there had found it out by the dumpsters and brought it into the store. Officers seized the firearm from the listed address as there was no owner (and by request of the store owner), and placed it into EPD evidence at headquarters under found property.	REED, S. E.

The victim states that when she could not get the basket, the suspect pulled out a can of unknown substance and sprayed her in the face with it. This caused the victim pain to her eyes and face. The suspect then left the house in her vehicle. Officers were unable to locate the vehicle. The victim's husband (also suspect's step father) corroborated the victim's story. Shortly after officers arrived, the suspect called dispatch wanting to speak with an officer. She told dispatch that the victim and witness had actually assaulted her. Officer observed slight redness to the victim's face and slight redness in the eyes. This appeared to be caused by a liquid irritant. She had no other signs of injury. Officer was able to get ahold of the suspect by phone about an hour after the incident. She states that she showed up at the house to get items from the home. She claims to still have residency there and multiple items in the home. She states that as she tried to leave the house with a basket of her late father's property, the victim physically grabbed her by the arm and refused to let her leave. The suspect states that she was hit in the lip at some point but was not sure if her mother intentionally hit her with an elbow or fist. She states that when this happened, she pulled a can of mace from her purse and sprayed the victim. She states that the witness attempted to "bear hug" her so she could not take the basket. The suspect dropped the basket so the witness would let go of her. She then left the house and drove away. The suspect claimed to have a minor injury on her lip from the incident but the officer did not see this in person. VICTIM of Crisis Intervention-immediate Detention (C), at Evansville, IN, between 19:00, 01/09/2021 and 19:07, 01/09/2021. LW 2100507 Domestic Battery-simple Assault	Goodmon, Virginia Annafaye (W F, 41) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-simple Assault (C), at 626 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, between 00:30, 01/10/2021 and 00:40, 01/10/2021. Reported: 01/10/2021. Officers got called for a Domestic Violence report at Berry Plastics. Female showed up at the door and stated her boyfriend assaulted her. She told us that she and him were out at the bars and everything was fine. While they were leaving they got into an argument about him thinking she was cheating on him. He stopped the vehicle at 626 N First Ave. She said he got out and opened the passenger door and grabbed her by the neck and threw her out of the vehicle on to the ground. She got up and started gathering her things and started to call 911 on her cell phone. He grabbed the cell phone and threw it on the ground and broke it. She then went to Berry to report it and stated that he had switched vehicles to a green Avalanche from the Red Durango they were in. He kept circling the area she said. He was unable to be located. She had no marks and did not want any medical attention and left in a taxi. The two have been dating nine months and do not live together or have any kids together.		VANCLEAVE, J.
