LW 2100239 Public Order- Disorderly Conduct	Society VICTIM of Public Order- Disorderly Conduct (C), at S Kentucky Ave/taylor Ave, Evansville, IN, between 01:47, 01/05/2021 and 01:50, 01/05/2021. Reported: 01/05/2021. On 01/05/2021 at approximately 0148, officers were dispatched to the area of Kentucky Ave and Taylor Ave for a shots fired. Dispatch advised that the caller stated he had been shot in the leg. After officers arrived in the area they located a male that had a towel wrapped around his leg. The male refused to cooperate with police and refused medical treatment. While officers were speaking with him he became irate and started yelling at officers. A short time later the male stated that he wanted medical treatment. Before we were going to release him for medical treatment we were going to pat him down for weapons for the safety of the paramedics. When we went to pat the subject down, he tensed up and began actively pulling away from us. We placed the subject in custody and placed him on the gurney for paramedics. AMR looked the subject over and stated that there was nothing wrong with the subject and did not need any medical treatment. The subject was taken to VCCC and booked for Disorderly Conduct and Resisting Law Enforcement.	WISEMAN, C. D.

The victim stated she was involved in a fight at Rick's Sports Bar, located at 1531 S Green River Rd, on 1-1-21. The victim stated when she arrived at the bar, two girls were blocking the door. The victim stated she got into a verbal altercation with a female and then went and sat down. The victim stated the suspect had come up and said hello and given her a hug (she stated she knew him from high school). The victim stated the female subject came back over and said "Don`t talk to my husband." The victim stated the fight began at that time and then went into the parking lot. The victim stated the female subject and her friends began "jumping" her. The victim stated the suspect then came up and punched her square in the face, causing her nose to bleed. The suspect told others at the bar he hit the victim because she had been fighting his wife. The victim was arrested this night, and officers did note in the affidavit she had injury to her nose. The victim stated she got released before xrays could be taken, so she went to the hospital herself. The victim stated the xrays came back with just swelling, and nothing in her face/nose was broken.		HOLDEN, J. L.

Reported: 01/05/2021. Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to a family dispute. Officers arrived on scene and spoke with Kara Griffin, the reporting party. Kara stated that her son, Skylar Griffin, and her boyfriend, the offender, had just gotten into a physical altercation in the dining room and both parties had left. Kara stated that Skylar had accused her of stealing his stimulus check. Kara stated that she did not take it, as it has not been deposited yet. Kara stated that Skylar continued to argue with her verbally, and as it continued, her boyfriend stood up from the table and started arguing with Skylar. Kara stated the verbal altercation turned physical as both parties attacked each other and threw punches at one another with a closed fist. Kara stated that she was unable to tell who threw the first punch, as both Skylar and her boyfriend went at each other. While officers were preparing to leave the scene, Skylar arrived and officers spoke with him. Skylar stated that he was standing in the living room talking to his mom about his stimulus check. Skylar stated that they started arguing, and that the offender stated that he was "going to beat his ass." Skylar stated that he told the offender that he would not, and that is when the offender stood up from his chair in the dining room and approached Skylar. Skylar stated that the offender punched him in the face and that he punched the offender back. I observed red marks underneath Skylar`s left eye, a minor cut to his bottom lip, and his glasses were damaged. Officers documented the injuries on their department-issued body-worn cameras, and labeled them accordingly as evidence. Skylar did not request or need medical attention on scene. Skylar was given a case number for reference and instructions on how to follow up with the prosecutor`s office.		MANSFIELD, M.

LW 2100296	Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage	Officers were dispatched to 1915 W Michigan in reference to an assault in progress. Officers arrived and located the offender outside of the address. Ofc. Wellen read him Miranda Rights and he said he understood. The offender stated that his grandmother and mother had taken a vehicle from his residence that contained items that belonged to him as well as a guest. The offender contacted his mother to have the items returned to his residence. The mother and the victim (the offender`s son) returned to the residence to unload the items. The offender stated that his son grabbed a baseball bat form the back seat of the vehicle and began to hit him with it. The offender also stated that he removed a knife from his pocket as his son came at him with the baseball bat. The offender was struck in the hand multiple times by the bat. The offender had the interaction on video from a security camera on his porch, which he showed officers. The victim stated that he went with his grandmother (the offender`s mother) to the offender`s residence to return the items that belonged to him. The victim says that he was unloading the items when the offender walked over with a knife in hand. The offender stated to the victim, "I dare you to leave," while holding the knife. The victim stated that he was in fear for his life and was afraid that the offender was going to stab him. The victim then grabbed a bat from the back seat of the vehicle and began striking the offender in self defense in the hand until he dropped the knife. While the altercation occurred, the grandmother drove away in the vehicle leaving the victim there. Once the victim had knocked the knife from the offender`s hand, the offender went back into the house and the victim left on foot down the street. Detectives arrived on scene to conduct further investigation. A pocket knife was also located in the middle of the road in front of the house where the altercation occurred.	WINN, K. M.
