Fluty attempted to get out of the vehicle when the suspect grabbed her by the arm and then by the throat, squeezing her to the point that she could not breathe. The suspect then retrieved the keys and attempted to drive the vehicle away while Fluty was still holding onto the steering wheel. He drove about 100 feet with her standing on the step of the door and hanging onto the steering wheel. When his attempt to take control of the vehicle failed he pulled the keys from the ignition and fled the scene on foot. The suspect headed west down Maryland St turning north on N Fifth St. Officers were able to make contact with the 911 caller who was following the vehicle at the time of the incident. The reporter was able to confirm the victim`s story, stating the male had choked the female. She stated that it appeared the suspect was attempting to take the vehicle from the female. Crime scene was called to take photos of the victim`s injury. She had a small red mark on the right side of her neck. K9 came to the scene in an attempt to track the suspect, but was unable to locate him. While on track the K9 officer was able to locate the victim`s keys at 1500 W Missouri where the suspect had texted the victim that he had them there. The keys were returned to the victim and she was released from the scene.	WELLEN, L. D.
