Reported: 01/24/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $499. I, Ofc. A. Beaver, was dispatched to a shoplifter at Wal-Mart East (401 N Burkhardt Ave). I was dispatched at 18:30 on 01/24/2021. When I arrived, I waited with Loss Prevention by the front doors of the store. I stopped the listed offender and two involved others as they were coming out of the store. All three parties were taken back to the Loss Prevention Office. The three parties were told to sit down. One of the involved others was a juvenile. I read the group the Miranda warning. The two adults stated that they understood their rights. According to the witness, the offender had taken price tags from some items and placed them on more expensive items. The two involved others were next to the offender as she was doing this. The adult involved other was even giving the offender the items from the shelving. The witness had video footage to back up this account. The offender stated she was the one to blame. She stated she was the one switching tags and the two involved others had nothing to do with it. The adult involved other claims that he did not see her switching the tags. I asked the offender again if she willingly switched the tags of the merchandise and purposefully checked out with them. She stated that was correct.
