Reported: 01/07/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $177. Officers were dispatched to 401 N Burkhardt Rd for a shoplifter. Loss prevention noticed the suspect scanning some items at the self-checkout but placing multiple other items in bags without scanning them. Loss prevention canceled the transaction thinking it may have been an accident. Walmart staff also asked the suspect if they needed help. The suspect declined help and continued to scan some items but not others before placing them in a grocery bag. The suspect passed all points of sale with the unpaid merchandise and was detained by loss prevention. We read the suspect her Miranda rights and she decided to speak with us. The suspect said she paid for some of the items and forgot to pay for the rest. Loss prevention then found more items in the bathroom he just allowed the suspect to use and the female admitted to stealing the items. The suspect stole $176.92 worth of items from the store. The suspect was issued a misdemeanor citation for shoplifting.	MASTORIDIS, E.

LW 2100420	Battery- Bodily Injury - Misdemeanor	Newcomb, Hannah Grace Marie (W F, 22) VICTIM of Battery- Bodily Injury - Misdemeanor (C), at 1921 E Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 19:00, 01/07/2021 and 19:04, 01/07/2021. Reported: 01/07/2021. Officers were dispatched to this address for an assault in progress. The victim, Hannah Newcomb, told officers that she had gone to this gas station with her friend Breanna Cooper. Hannah states that when she arrived at the gas station, the suspect was there with her boyfriend Devon Woodall. Hannah states that she, Breanna and the suspect do not get along with each other. Hannah only knows the suspect as a friend of Breanna's. Hannah states that she walked out of the gas station and walked toward her car. Once at her car, the suspect approached her and was cussing her out. The suspect then grabbed her hair and threw her on the ground. The suspect scratched and hit Hannah while she was on the ground. Hannah states that she had difficulty breathing at one point because the suspect sat on top of her. Hannah initially thought that the suspect had stolen her phone, but later recovered it about ten feet from where the altercation happened. Hannah states that the suspect pushed her elbow into her neck at one point and made it difficult to breath. The suspect then	KLEIN, P. T.

She had a scratch on her neck but no bruising. Officer also watched camera footage of the incident from the gas station. The footage showed: The suspect walks toward Hannah as she walked to her vehicle (Chrysler 300). The suspect and Hannah appear to say something to each other. The suspect then grabs Hannah's hair and begins throwing her around. The suspect throws punches at Hannah and strikes her multiple times. The two wrestle for about thirty seconds. The suspect's boyfriend appears to break the fight up. The suspect then picks up Hannah's iPhone, which had fallen on the ground. The suspect then threw the iPhone away from them onto the ground. The suspect then attacks Hannah again and throws her to the ground. From the camera angle, it is difficult to see what happens while they are on the ground. The suspect eventually gets off of Hannah and goes back to her vehicle. The suspect then left the scene in the car. Hannah wanted to press charges and was advised to obtain a Protective Order. She had a complaint of pain to the back of her head but refused AMR. She did not lose consciousness during the attack. Hannah's phone was damaged by the suspect. Gas station was advised that EPD Crime Scene would pick up the camera footage in the near future.		VANFLEET, G. M.
