LW 2100649 Theft- Shoplifting - Value Of Property At Least $750 And Les	Sams Club Virginia VICTIM of Theft- Shoplifting - Value Of Property At Least $750 And Les (A), at 6700 E Virginia St, Evansville, IN, between 17:20, 01/12/2021 and 17:30, 01/12/2021. Reported: 01/12/2021. I, Officer A. Beaver, was dispatched to a shoplifting in progress at Sam`s Club (6700 E Virginia St) at 17:37 on 1/12/2021. I was advised that there was a white male in a black Columbia jacket "concealing items". Upon my arrival, I met with a Sam`s Club employee. She advised that he was at the customer service with his concealed items. The offender, later identified as Cameron Findley, left his items at customer service and proceeded to leave the store. I detained Findley in the parking lot and transported him back inside the store. We first stopped at customer service where Findley`s cart was. In the cart was a box for a $59.98 "Step Can". The seal of the box was cut by a Sam`s Club Employee. The trash can box was then opened to reveal a $1,199 HP GT12-019. Findley was then taken to the Sam`s Club Loss Prevention Office. I had Findley sit down. I read Findley the Miranda Rights. He stated he understood his rights. I first spoke with Thomas Magro, a Sam`s Club employee. He stated that this was the third time Findley had done something like this. Magro stated that on this specific occasion Findley had taken the trash can out of the box and placed the computer inside the trash can box. Magro stated that the actual trash can was still in the trash can isle. Also, Magro stated that the store could no longer sell the trash		BEAVER, A. B.

LW 2100643	can as new merchandise. Because Magro knew Findley had stolen from them before, Magro initially declined Findley membership card before he could check out with the concealed computer. Findley attempted to check out with the concealed computer, but discovered his membership card was declined. When Findley found that it was declined, he went to customer service. Magro was also able to show me video of Findley going to the computer section of the store and placing the computer in his cart. Video then shows Findley go into the trash can isle with the computer still in his cart. Video shows Findley leaving the isle with just the trash can box. In the Loss Prevention office, Findley stated he placed the computer down in the trash can isle. He then selected the trash can box. He stated that he did not know the computer was in the box. It was verified by Sam`s Club Employees that the same computer he picks up in the computer isle is the same computer that happened to be in the trash can box. Findley was transported to Vanderburgh County Corrections Center on a Felony Warrant (Warrant # C012101F181) and the above charges. At VCCC, Findley admitted that he put the computer in the trash can box. EPD Records also verified that Findley had pleaded guilty to a theft case on 11/11/2013 (82C011311FD01234)		ELFREICH, Z. LW 2100636	Theft- From Building - Value Of Property At Least $750 And L	Petry, Mckayla Taylor (W F, 23) VICTIM of Theft- From Building - Value Of Property At Least $750 And L (C), at 5061 Oak Grove Rd, Evansville, IN, between 08:00, 01/02/2021 and 14:00, 01/03/2021. Reported: 01/12/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $1,845.	MASTORIDIS, E.
	Officers took a theft report for Carie Betag and Mckayla Petry in reference to their storage unit being broken into and their belongings being stolen on the night of 01/02/2021. The owner of the storage unit facility had a theft and criminal mischief report made on 01/3/2021 for multiple units being broken into (Case #21-00134). The storage facility encouraged the unit renters to file individual theft reports if they noticed items missing. Carie and Mckayla had a safe, clothing, jewelry and electronics stolen from their unit.
	On today`s date, Carie and Mckayla were driving into the East side storage facility when they saw unit number 2 open and noticed a black safe matching the description of the safe belonging to Mckayla that was stolen. Mckayla said her key fit the safe and the safe had a gift card inside with her name on it. We spoke with Donald Brush the maintenance tenant of the facility and he said he found the safe after the original theft and criminal mischief report was taken (21-00134). Donald said the safe was lying open by a dumpster in the rear of the facility with a few gift cards inside and some pennies. Donald placed the safe in unit 2 (owned by the facility for maintenance items) until someone came forward and requested it. Donald searched for Mckayla`s name through their database when he originally found the safe, but the unit is in Carie`s name, so Donald was unable to find any contact information for Mckayla. Donald said Mckayla could go in the unit and grab her safe.
LW 2100633	Found Property	Hill, Vincent O. (W M, 78) VICTIM of Found Property (C), at 2012 Maxwell Ave, Evansville, IN, between 09:00, 12/29/2020 and 13:51, 01/04/2021. Reported: 01/12/2021.	AGHASARYAN,
	Officers were dispatched to the above address for a found property and a vandalism report.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2100634	The caller advised me that he observed that one of their side doors had been spray painted, and they also found a black backpack around their property. The caller did not want to press charges for the vandalism. He just wanted us to be aware of what was going on. Upon my search of the backpack, it was determined that property belonged to the victim due to having his name on most of the items. I reached out to the most current address and the phone number that we had in the system, and I was able to confirm that the victim still lived there but was not there at the time that I had called. I gave the manager the case number so they can inform the victim, and explained of what steps to make, and also advised her to call us back if needed.		SMITH, C. T.
