On scene officers knocked on the door attempting to make contact with the occupants. A neighbor came out into the hallway and stated that the occupant was in a wheel chair and had several medical problems. She also stated that the man frequently had homeless men in the apartment. No one came to the door and officers could hear a male inside the apartment yelling for help. Due to exigent circumstances officers attempted to force entry into the apartment by kicking the door. After several failed attempts EFD was called to grant access into the apartment. AMR was also called to be on standby due to the unknown circumstances and the occupant`s Medical history. EFD unlocked the door and a protective sweep of the apartment was conducted. There was visible damage to the lower half of the door, it had vertical cracks starting at the bottom of the door running up to the bottom of the latch. On the outside of the door there was also a single horizontal crack halfway between the latch and the bottom of the door. The damage on the door was from the failed attempts to make entry. Inside the apartment officers located William Clarke on his couch intoxicated. Clarke became verbally aggressive with officers yelling "Fuck you get out of my house" repeatedly. Officers remained at the scene until AMR could arrive Clarke became verbally aggressive with AMR and refused their assistance. Clarke continued to get aggressive with officers cussing and demanding that they leave his apartment. The neighbor told officers that Clarke is normally like this when he is drinking.
