Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
Property Damage	I, Officer R. Eagleson, was dispatched to 1121 Washington Square (KC`s Time Out Lounge) in regard to a hit and run with property damage. Upon arriving, I spoke with the victim identified as Chelsea Emmons. Emmons advised she had arrived at approximately 1840 and parked her vehicle (gray Toyota Camry - Indiana license plate 465HAH; Expiration: 04/21/2021) in a parking space to the west of the establishment. The parking lot has diagonal parking spaces. The parking space that Emmons parked in faced northwest directly in front of the building. Emmons advised she went inside for a little more than an hour and returned to her vehicle. At this time, Emmons observed that the rear left portion of her vehicle (back bumper) was damaged. The vehicle was parked and unoccupied during the crash. Emmons did not see the collision occur. Emmons mentioned that someone inside had seen the collision occur. I made contact with the witness, identified as Paula Capo. Capo advised she was standing outside smoking a cigarette and observed an older brown minivan (unknown make, model, or license plate). Backing out of a parking space to the south of Emmons` vehicle. In the process of backing out, the brown minivan crashed into Emmons` vehicle and was positioned facing toward the east. The driver of the minivan (offender) did not stop to exchange information with Emmons, proceeded eastbound through the parking lot toward the building in the traffic lane, and then turned northbound toward Washington Avenue through the parking lot until out of Capo`s sight. Capo could not provide any offender description. I observed Emmons` vehicle and noticed damage to the rear left. I also noticed light brown paint transfer on the vehicle. KC`s Time Out Lounge did not have camera footage of the incident, but Capo advised that she believes Washington Square Mall may. The offender`s vehicle was driving in the general direction of Schnucks, which may also have exterior cameras. Emmons was provided with a case number for her reference.
