No victims listed. I, Officer Street, along with Officer Klein were dispatched to 3526 Taylor Avenue in reference to a family dispute. The caller stated that her friend Pascal was trying to leave the residence, but her boyfriend, Greathouse, would not let her leave. Officer Klein and I arrived where we were met at the door by Pascal. Pascal stated that Greathouse was asleep and wanted to look through his phone, but then Greathouse stated to her that he did not know the passcode. An argument ensued between the two due to Pascal believing that Greathouse had been cheating her. Greathouse recorded Pascal on his phone of her confronting him and trying to slap the phone out of his hand. Pascal stated that Greathouse had slapped her on her right cheek during the argument, but no indication or signs that she was injured. Greathouse stated that Pascal had woke him up and asked for his phone passcode, but did not want to give it to her, where she then became very angry at him. Greathouse stated that Pascal began trying to slap the phone out of his hand, and she ended up slapping him on his left shoulder. Greathouse had no signs of injury present. Pascal packed a suitcase full of her belongings and went to stay at a family members house for the day.		STREET, C. J.

Reported: 02/18/2021. Officers were dispatched to take a stolen vehicle report. The victim stated the offender knocked on his door attempting to get out of the cold and asked for a drink. The offender waited until the victim left the room and took 2 sets of vehicle keys that were sitting on the victim`s desk. The offender asked if he could stay and when the victim told him no, the offender left. The offender left his blanket, when the victim went to give it to him he discovered his vehicle had been stolen.		HARTER, J. K.
LW 2102632 Incident Rpt Misc	Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 2418 E Columbia St, Evansville, IN, on 02/18/2021, 06:36. Reported: 02/18/2021. No victims listed. I responded to 2148 E Columbia in regards to a check welfare. It was called in by a medical office concerned about the resident missing an important appointment. I checked for medic run history and there had not been any. The television and lights inside were on and there were no fresh footprints made within the last few hours. The truck was also prepped as if it were going to be driven. After confirming with the medical office that he hadn`t arrived late, the decision was made to force entry and see if the resident was down inside and in need of medical assistance. I used a glass punch and busted the glass panes on the back entry door to gain entry by unlocking the deadbolt. Entry was made and as I was checking the residence, I received a call from the office stating the resident had been admitted to the hospital. I was able to make contact with the resident and informed him of the situation. He was in the hospital for a scheduled procedure. He was given the case number and instructions on how to file with the city for reimbursement.		DICKINSON, J. D.

Reported: 02/18/2021. Officers were dispatched to the above address, CVS, for a hit and run with property damage report. I contacted the victim, Vitaniemi, by telephone. Vitaniemi reported that she is an employee of CVS and was informed by a co-worker, witness, that her vehicle was hit by another vehicle. I spoke to the witness, Hunter, who stated that when he was outside of CVS on a work break and observed the suspect hit Vitaniemi's vehicle. Vitaniemi's vehicle was parked on the CVS lot. Her vehicle was in a parking spot within the south line of parking spots facing Columbia (facing toward Hacienda). Hunter stated that the suspect's vehicle was initially in a row of parking spots facing First Avenue. Hunter reported that the suspect began moving his vehicle within the parking lot and while doing so struck Vitaniemi's vehicle. Hunter was not able to specify how or why the collision occurred, but attributed the possibility of the accident happening because of the snow. Hunter stated that after the suspect hit Vitaniemi's vehicle the suspect stepped out of his vehicle to look at the potential damage. Hunter reported that he asked the suspect if there was damage to the vehicles, to which the suspect denied and proceeded to enter the store. Hunter observed damage to Vitaniemi's vehicle and notified Vitaniemi of the incident. Vitaniemi stated that there was damage to the back, passenger-side area of her bumper and taillight. She also noticed damage to the back, passenger-side area that sits between her back right tire and the back, passenger-side bumper. Vitaniemi reported that the suspect entered the store with a female, involved other. The couple came to the pharmacy and picked up medication for another person which resulted in the female's ID card being scanned. Vitaniemi contacted the person listed on the picked-up prescription and was able to obtain a possible first name for the suspect. The suspect was described as a white male, approximately 5'10 and 150 pounds. He had a dark brown beard and appeared to be in his mid-20's to early 30's. He		HOWARD, K. E.
