He tried to pay over the phone but "with everything going on they don't take payments over the phone". The person told him to go to the gas station at Fulton and Columbia and put money in the kiosk. They then called him back and told him that he did not put enough in and was two months behind so they were going to shut off his power and he could get it back in two days unless he paid now. So he went back and paid more cash in to the kiosk. He said he had receipts but left before we arrived and said he wasn't coming back. I went to the machine that he put the money in and it was a Bit Coin ATM.		VANCLEAVE, J. T.
