LW 2101764 Domestic Battery-moderate Bodily Injury	Zwahlen, Megan Lynn (W F, 20) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-moderate Bodily Injury (C), at 3225 Woodview Ct, Evansville, IN, between 05:00, 01/31/2021 and 07:20, 01/31/2021. Reported: 01/31/2021. Ofcs were dispatched to a disturbance at 3225 Woodview Ct apt 135 where items could be heard being thrown against the walls and the female yelling and screaming to get out! Upon arrival I could hear a crying hysterical female voice yelling repeatedly "Get out!" After knocking several times on the door with no answer the screaming stopped and a small female answered the door disheveled in appearance with redness around her neck area, and a small bloody scratch on the bridge of her nose. Her sweater appeared to be torn or stretched as well. She appeared to be frightened and was reluctant to let us inside. Upon entering to make sure that she was safe and there was no threat inside the apartment, Ofc Pylant discovered a B/M Kendall Dixon in one of the bedrooms. Ofc Carlile spoke with the victim in the living room while Pylant spoke with Dixon in the bedroom. Dixon was uncooperative with Pylant verbally when attempting to gather information. The victim stated that her injuries were self inflicted and that she just wanted him to leave. Dixon was given the opportunity to leave on his own by officers but he refused officers commands to exit the apartment after the registered tenant requested that he leave the premises. Dixon and the victim have been in a relationship for more than three years however Dixon does not live at the	CARLILE, S. E.

Dixon was arrested for trespass and DV Battery and transported to Jail where he refused to cooperate with Corrections officers as well to wear a mask or submit to a COVID test on the premises. Dixon stated to Pylant that he would return to the victims address. I photographed the victims injuries and sent them to Det T. Lincoln to be entered into evidence under this case number. The neighbor that called 911 for the victim, Brian Miller,W/M that lives at 3225 Woodview Ct apt 136 stated to Ofc Carlile that the disturbance started around 0500 with yelling and screaming, things being thrown against the walls, and doors slamming in apt 135. Miller further states this continued for the next two hours with the victim coming and going from the apartment to seek refuge in a vehicle in the parking lot. The victim, crying and dishevelled with no visible injuries at this time, at some point knocked on Millers door requesting help because she was cold. Dixon had locked her out of her apartment and refused to let her back inside. The victim stayed with Miller briefly before returning to her apartment and the disturbance began all over again. At approx. 0715 hours the victim returned to Millers apartment again sobbing and visibly upset requesting that Miller please call the Police. Dixon called for her and then returned to her apartment until officers arrived. End
