Reported: 03/20/2021. At the listed date and time, Officers were dispatched to 813 N Saint Joseph Ave in response to domestic violence in progress call. Multiple people were calling into dispatch about a white female in a red shirt with grey pants hitting a male subject at the gas station. Witnesses also advised that the female subject was yelling about killing the male and also killing herself. Officers arrived on scene and could observe that the parties were separated by a county unit that had arrived. Many people were standing around the area and looking at the scene. Officers observed that there was food on the ground and what appeared to be drinks. Officers spoke to the male subject who stated that his wife came to the gas station and started to hit him, while yelling obscenities. The male stated that the female also tore his shirt during the altercation. The male did not have visible signs of injury but his shirt was torn on the collar. The male was visibly upset about the situation and stated that he did not attempt to defend himself. Officers then spoke the female subject who stated that she arrived at the gas station and noticed that someone besides her husband was driving her vehicle. She confronted the individual, which was her husband's friend. The female subject stated that he started to yell at her and bumped her with his chest. The female subject advised that she did not attempt to punch anyone or that the situation got physical in any way. The female subject stated that the public altercation was just verbal before officers arrived. Officers then spoke to multiple witnesses on scene who stated that the female subject attacked the male. All witnesses confirmed that the male did not hot the female and that he did not even attempt to defend himself. Witnesses on scene advised that the female was the problem party and was hitting the male before officers arrived on scene. 813 N Saint Joseph Ave does have cameras but the manager that controls them had left for the day. The female subject was taken into custody without incident		BEARD, J. A.
