LW 2104789 Domestic Battery-simple Assault	advised that her son, Kevin, is holding her against her will and is rough with her. Today, Latosha advised that her son will not let her leave the house so she could go and get a restraining order on him. Latosha added that her son will pull and push on her aggressively and she doesn't feel safe with him around. When asked, Latosha stated that she did not have any bruising, or any other physical signs of an altercation. Kevin advised that his mother is in the beginning stages of Alzheimers/Dementia, has had a stroke, and has a severe urinary track infection and is not in her right mind. Kevin has Power of Attorney over his mother as well. Since the UTI, Kevin states that his mother's behavior has become more odd and aggressive toward him. Kevin states that his mother will just stand around for hours, stare off into space, and speak incoherently. Kevin is trying to care for her as best he can, because his mother doesn't have anyone else. Kevin also showed me the medication that Latosha takes and it matches the conditions his mother is suffering from. I also spoke with Kevin's sister, Bridgett, who advised same as Kevin. Bridgett also stated that Kevin has never been violent with their mother and that Kevin has given up everything to take care of her. Both stated that they don't know what to do next, but they need to find a long term care solution. Bridgett stated she is hoping once her mother recovers from the UTI, she will be more stable. I told Kevin and Bridgett that I would do an incident report and forward this on to Adult Protective Services and maybe they could assist in finding a solution. Kevin stated he would call Latosha's doctors as well and see if they can do anything.	Knowles, Tricia Michelle (W F, 40) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-simple Assault (C), at 1108 S Weinbach Ave, Evansville, IN, between 11:00, 03/26/2021 and 11:20, 03/26/2021.
