Reported: 03/14/2021. Officers were dispatched to 1420 E. Morgan Ave. for a 911 hang up. Central Dispatch was told by the caller that his mom and boyfriend were fighting. Officers arrived on scene shortly after and could hear yelling coming from inside the residence. Officers knocked on both the front and back doors several times. A male and female subject had finally answered the door. Officers separated both subjects and asked about what had taken place. Initially, the male subject stated that him and his girlfriend were arguing over paper towels and it was all verbal. The female subject stated that her boyfriend had placed both hands around her neck and slammed her into a wall in the living room. She stated that she was unable to breath. She had injury to her face and upper chest. The male was placed into handcuffs. While I was speaking to the female subject, I was advised that the male subject had stated he was punched in the face by the female and had minor injuries on his face and neck. The female was placed into handcuffs. I spoke with a 15 year old male juvenile who is the son of the female. He stated that he witnessed the boyfriend put his hands around his mom's neck and slam her into the wall. I spoke with a 10 year old male juvenile and he stated that her heard "cuss words" and screaming while he was in his room. Both adults were arrested and transported to the VCCC. CSU was called out to take photos of their injuries. Both subjects have prior unrelated battery offenses.		STAATS, C. M.
