Communication-Harassment	The victim and the suspect have been broke up since October 2020, but have had contact off and on. The victim has completely ended things with the suspect and he did not want the relationship to end. The suspect has been calling the victim repeatedly from all kinds of numbers even after being asked not to. The suspect called the victim a few times while I was on scene taking this report. The vehicle that the suspect was in prior to my arrival, came into the area as I was taking the report. The driver turned out the lights as it was approaching and then made a Uturn prior to reaching our location. The victim is in fear for her and her children's safety. They do not share children in common. The suspect has threatened to have individuals do things to the victim's house, her and her family. The suspect is threatening to post private pictures they shared while in a relationship to embarrass the victim. The victim has asked the suspect to stop calling her, messaging her and coming by her home. The victim is going to apply for a restraining order tomorrow and would like the suspect barred from her property if he is found in front of her home.
