Tot.Est.Loss: $5,959. Victim arrived at Target at 6625 E Lloyd Expy to purchase 2,000 dollars worth of gift cards. The cashier questioned the victim as to why she was purchasing a large amount of gift cards and the victim stated it was for another person she was currently on the phone with. Further investigation by Target determined the victim was buying gift cards for a scammer over the phone. The victim hung up the phone and police were called. The victim stated she received a phone call on her cell phone today around 1000 hours. The victim stated the person on the other line claimed to be a representative from the United States and stated they had obtained her social security number. The offender said that the victim's social security number and victims name returned as the owner to a drug house in Texas. The offender told the victim to go purchase gift cards and relay the card information over the phone. The offender told the victim that if she didn't do this she would be		WERNE, C. L.

The offender also told the victim that if she told a third party about the situation she would be in more trouble. The victim began to drive to various stores in Evansville to purchase gift cards. The victim first went to Walmart on First Ave (2500 N First Ave). The victim purchased four gift cards at this location, each for 500 dollars (2,000 total). The victim stated she then went to Target at 4000 N First Ave and purchased four gift cards again for another 500 dollars each (2,000 total). The victim stated she then went to a Dollar General on Lincoln Ave near Lincoln school (Dollar General located at 720 Lincoln Ave). The victim stated she purchased four Best Buy gift cards at this location, each for 500 dollars (2,000 total). The offender then had the victim go to Target at 6625 E Lloyd Expy, in which employees at this location advised the victim she was being scammed. The victim also visited various other stores during the day but some of the stores would not give her gift cards due to various reasons. The victim stated the offender required her to stay on the phone during the entire time. The victim stated she relayed the gift card information over the phone to the offender. LW 2103716 Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage	I, Officer J. Holden, was working in EPD Records when a dispatched run came out at 325 Harrison Blvd reference a fraud report. I contacted the victim via TX. The victim stated she opened an email claiming to be Microsoft. The email stated they would be withdrawing $399.99. The email also stated if this information was incorrect to call a number listed on the email. The victim called the number on the email and then clicked on the link inside the email while on the phone with the suspects. The victim stated she knew everything seemed wrong, but they talked her into putting her bank information in, so they could show her they would be refunding the $399.99. The victim stated she did what they asked and suddenly there was a "9" in front of the $399.99 and she could not use the backspace button to remove it. The victim stated it was like they had control over her computer. The victim stated over a few day time frame, she was talked into going to the bank, writing a check to herself to withdraw $9000 and then she sent the $9000 cash via FedX to an address in Las Vegas. The victim stated she misplaced the address but she would look for it and bring it to headquarters when she brings in her bank statements. The victim was very upset and stated she was smarter than this, and she knew better. I tried to explain to the victim this happens all the time, and that is what these people do. I advised the victim to never give out any personal information over the phone, hang up, and call police and we can help identify what is a scam and what is real. The victim was given a case number.	Johnson, Amber Leigh (B F, 35) VICTIM of Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage (C), at 1222 E Riverside Dr, Evansville, IN, between 15:57, 03/08/2021 and 15:58, 03/08/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $10,000. I, Officer J. Holden, was working in EPD Records when a dispatched run came out at 1306 N Willow Rd reference a theft report. I contacted the reporter via TX. The victim stated officers were out at his residence on 03/06/21 reference his ex step son, the suspect, who was refusing to get off his property. The victim stated the suspect had been working on vehicles out of his garage for about four years. The victim stated the suspect began working on other people`s vehicle`s which he stated he did not want because he is a residential household and not commercial. The victim stated he put a lock on the garage and when the suspect arrived things got heated which is why officers were called out on Saturday. The victim stated officers got the key from him and he advised the suspect could go in the garage and get his items and then leave. The victim allowed officers to open the garage and asked they bring the key right back, which officers did. The victim was upset because officers allowed the suspect to take everything out of the garage even though items did not belong to the suspect. (Officers did not standby the entire time) I spoke with Officer Howard who was there on 03/06/21 about the incident. Officer Howard advised they did not standby while the suspect took tools out of the garage and they would have had no way of knowing who owned what items. Officer Howard stated the victim is in a wheelchair and he could not come outside to the garage but told officers to unlock it for the suspect. The victim was able to get a friend to help him out to his garage today and he realized the suspect took all of his tools which are worth a lot of money. The victim stated he could not give specifics about all his tools because its been so long since he has looked at them all but he stated they are specialty tools used to work on aircraft`s. The victim advised he knew for sure of special screw drivers and special torque wrenches used to work on aircrafts. The victim also mentioned a cherry picker was taken.		HOLDEN, J. L.
