Motor Vehicle-Leaving The Scene Of A Crash-Property Damage	Officers were called to the 4100 block of Saddlebrook Ln for a hit and run report. The reporter, Raymond Powers, stated he was driving east bound on Lynch with a black SUV in front of him. Powers stated both he and the SUV stopped in the right turn lane at the intersection of Lynch and Green River for a red light. Powers said when the light turned green, both he and the SUV began turning south onto Green River. Powers stated as he went through the intersection, he looked away for a moment and, when he looked back toward the road, he observed the SUV had stopped in the traffic lane. Powers stated he did not have enough time to stop, and collided with the rear of the SUV.
	Powers stated he and the other driver pulled off to the side of the road and, after the other driver determined he had no damage to his vehicle, he drove away from the scene without exchanging insurance information. Powers was not able to confirm a make or model of the SUV, but says it had a Texas license plate. Powers was given a case number and instructions on how to gain a copy of his report.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
Property Damage	Central Dispatch generated a "notification" run card explaining that a Kayli Embry called in to report a hit an run crash that occurred somewhere near Eastland Mall. Embry requested that an officer call her to take the report. I observed the notification pending in the call que and handled the incident via the telephone. During the conversation, I had my body-worn camera activated. Embry advised she had left Eastland Mall in her grey colored 2009 Infiniti G37 (Kentucky license plate: AGH175) traveling south-bound on Green River Road at approximately 1945 hours. She was stopped at the left turn arrow, which directed traffic from south-bound Green River Road to east-bound Lloyd Expressway. Embry advised she was in the inner most turn lane and the suspect's vehicle, a blue 2004 Pontiac Grand Am (Indiana license plate: TIY404) was in the outer most turn lane. Embry advised the left turn arrows turned green and she proceeded to turn left (east) onto the on-ramp to the Lloyd Expressway (approximately in the 4800-block). Embry finished her turn and remained in the left lane toward the Lloyd Expressway on the ramp. Embry noticed the suspect's vehicle crossed into her lane and crashed into the front right of her vehicle causing damage. Embry began recording on her cell phone and was able to obtain a license plate of the suspect's vehicle, as well as the offender's general description. Embry tried to flag down the suspect, but the suspect never stopped and continued east-bound until out of sight. Due to her one-year-old child being in the vehicle, Embry drove home to Owensboro and decided to call police when she arrived. Embry advised that no one in the vehicle was hurt and mentioned that the front right headlight was damaged (valued at approximately $50.00). Embry was unsure where the suspect's vehicle would have damage, if any, as she described the suspect's vehicle was already damaged in multiple areas prior to the crash. Embry was provided with a case number for her reference.
