	Officers were dispatched to the listed address for a disorderly conduct. The reporting party (later identified as the offender) stated someone was at his backdoor. He told dispatch he believed it was an ex girlfriend (the victim), but he hasn't seen her though. She was kicking and screaming at the back door.
	Officers made contact with the victim outside of the offender's home. Officers asked the victim to stay where she was at and she took off on foot. The victim continued to travel northbound behind several houses. Officers had to chase the victim, and were able to stop her as she was jumping over a fence. Officers detained the victim and spoke to her.
	The victim stated she was not allowed to leave the offenders house for several hours (above timeframe). She stated that everytime she attempted to leave the offender would hold her down on the bed. She stated the offender punched her several times in the face and body. The victim had bruises to her face and a bruised/swollen hand (right). She stated she obtained the bruised hand by blocking a punch. The timeframe she gave me for the bruises ranged over several days.
	I asked the victim how she was able to escape from the offender. She stated she ran out the back door while he was using the restroom. She realized, outside, that she had left her purse inside the residence. She attempted to re-enter the residence, but the offender locked her out. I asked the victim why she tried to re-enter the residence after he had confined her to a bedroom. She stated because she wanted to get her purse.
	The offender spoke to officers through his storm door. He did not cooperate or give any information to assist officers in an investigation (he was the original reporting party).

Reported: 04/03/2021. Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to hit and run with property damage. Dispatch stated a red pick up truck struck an orange jeep while entering the Llyod Expressway from Fulton Ave. Officers arrived and spoke with the victim, Denal Mackey. Mackey's vehicle (IN Plate DEM TAL) was on the right shoulder of the on-ramp from Fulton Ave to the Lloyd Expressway. Mackey stated he was traveling west on the on-ramp when two lanes merged into one. Mackey stated a red pickup truck, unknown plate and driver description, attempted to pass him on the left. The truck did not have enough room and merged into Mackey's vehicle. The passengers side of the pickup truck made contact with the front drivers side of Mackey's vehicle causing visible damage to the front drivers side panel and door frame. Mackey's vehicle was forced off of the roadway and the front passenger tire was flattened as a result. The pickup truck continued west on the Lloyd Expressway. Jarrid Hollander also witnesses the accident. Hollander stated he observed the wreck from his rear view mirror. Hollander stated the red Ford Explorer with rails on top was driving erratically and he thought it might cause a wreck. Hollander saw the red Explorer attempt to pass the orange suv but the explorer did not have enough room. The passengers side of the Explorer struck the drivers of the suv and the contact forced the suv off of the roadway. Hollander reported the wreck and stayed on scene to speak with officers.
