Communication- Intimidation	While working the front counter in the Records Unit this morning, I was met by Capt Andy Chandler and VI, Scott Owen. Capt Chandler asked that I completed a Misd Intimidation report for Scott, documenting the events of 4/5/2021. On 4/5/2021 at approx 15:30 hours, Scott Owen`s wife called dispatch regarding a harassment in progress. The offender was the neighbor, that they have had ongoing issues with. Below are the notes from the run card. "STATES HER NEIGHBOR IS OUTSIDE TRYING TO GET RPS HUSBAND TO FIGHT HIM. RP DOESNT KNOW THE NEIGHBORS NAME. STATES ITS A ONGOING ISSUE. BM BALD, UNK CLOTHING DESC. [04/06/21 00:24:23 CZAMORA]                  HE LIVES ON THE CORNER OF EDSON / SWEETSER. [04/06/21 00:27:57 CZAMORA]                   DISPO FROM ONE OF THE PREVIOUS RUNS This is a verbal only neighbor dispute. Both neighbors think the other is in the wrong. The "problem party" is a registered sex offender and it appears that the caller is just very upset that someone with that title lives so close to him. I was able to speak to both parties and nothing criminal occurred at this time. I advised both parties to try to remain civil and if the other is not doing something to provoke the other and that is all to ignore it and go inside. The neighbor did have a pellet gun (revolver) on his hip, but was very cooperative with officers and just wants the caller to mind his own business. When officers went back to see if the "problem party" was back in the street, no one was. This is a civil matter only at this time. The caller continues to sit outside of his house so that his neighbors can see. He said he is not scared of his neighbors and his kids aren`t either. Ofcs. informed him that if doesn`t want further issues with his neighbors he should consider sitting out back for the night to which he said it`s his right to sit out front.
