LW 2106953 Consumer Product- Consumer Product Tampering	the vehicle. The driver, ID'd as Sierra Fuller, was removed from the vehicle as well as the passenger. Officers located a large bag of green leafy substance in her purse, a smaller bag of the same substance and a rolled up blunt of what appeared to be marijuana. There was a scale and a grinder in her purse. Sierra stated that it was all hers and that she was planning to sell it. Sierra was cited and released from the scene.	Spainhoward, Jaclinn Marie (W F, 30) VICTIM of Consumer Product- Consumer Product Tampering (C), at 1605 Crystal Ct, Evansville, IN, between 23:00, 04/26/2021 and 23:45, 04/26/2021. Reported: 04/27/2021.	MILES, C. A.
	On 04/27/2021 at approximately 1610 hundred hours officers were dispatched to 1605 Crystal Ct in reference to a standby. Upon arrival officers met with the victim, she stated that she believes that her boyfriend has been drugging her. The victim stated that she believes that this has been going on for approximately 5 months. The victim stated that 5 months ago her boyfriend, the offender, was talking to her at her work, and mentioned something to her about PCP. The victim stated that when she asked the offender about it, he acted like he was talking about a bonus at work they called PCP and not the drug. The victim stated that after he mentioned the PCP at work she began shaking, her face felt very hot, she began shaking uncontrollably, and her heart was racing. The victim stated that she thought at the time she was just having a panic attack so she did not report it.
	The victim stated that 04/26/2021 she was at the listed address alone and asked the offender if he could bring her a drink home. The victim stated that the offender brought her home a drink and some strawberry donuts. The victim stated that the donut bag was already open when he gave them to her and she noticed that they had an odd "sparkle" to them. The victim stated that she did not think anything of the donuts and began eating them. The victim stated that she got suspicious because she began to give their dog half of a donut, and the offender freaked out and told her not to give the dog the donuts. The victim stated that she believed this was odd because they often give the dog table food. The victim later had her mother pick her up from the address. The victim stated that after eating the donuts she began to experience all of the same symptoms that she had 5 months ago after the offender mentioned PCP.
	The victim then did an at home urine drug screen, and showed officers that she tested positive for multiple drugs. The victim stated that many of the drugs she tested positive for, she had used in the past. The victim stated that she had never used PCP and did not believe that any of the drugs she used in the past could have been laced with PCP. The victim also stated that she planned to go to the hospital to be drug tested.
	Officers spoke with the offender at the listed address. I read the offender Miranda Warning to which he stated he understood. The offender stated that he did not do anything to the donuts and as far as he knew the bag was sealed when he gave them to her. The offender also stated that the victim is known to use multiple drugs. I then asked the offender if he knew why the victim would test positive for PCP. The offender stated that she has probably used it, or it was in some of the other drugs she uses. I asked the offender if he still had the donuts in the home and he stated that he did, and showed them to officers. The donuts did not appear to be abnormal, but were unable to be tested. The offender stated that he told the victim

It was determined that the subject in question was fine but the reporter advised he was punched and choked earlier. A report was taken.		CLAYTON, H. P.
LW 2106979 Broken Window	Broken Window (C), at 326 S Kentucky Ave, Evansville, IN, between 23:48, 04/27/2021 and 23:55, 04/27/2021. Reported: 04/28/2021. No victims listed.  On 04/27/2021, officers were dispatched to 326 S. Kentucky Ave in reference to a person down. The caller reported a gold car was parked in the lot with a male passed out in the driver's seat. Officers arrived on scene and observed the described car parked near the air pump. The engine on the vehicle was running but was in park.  The driver, later identified as Brandon Meriwether, was passed out in the driver's seat. Officers observed Meriwether to be profusely sweating on his face and arms. Officers began shaking the vehicle to the point Meriwether was being moved around inside the vehicle. He did not respond or wake up. Officers began yelling and knocking on the windows and Meriwether continued not to respond. Officers believed Meriwether may have been having a medical emergency and the rear passenger side window was broken out.  Even after the window was broken out, Meriwether did not react. Officers unlocked the vehicle and performed a sternum rub on Meriwether which was somewhat effective. AMR was called to the scene to evaluate Meriwether. He refused medical treatment and AMR advised he was able to answer all of their questions. Meriwether became more responsive and coherent as he woke up. He stated that he was tired and parked in the lot and fell asleep. Officers could not smell the odor of alcohol coming from him. Meriwether gave officers consent to search his vehicle and nothing in the vehicle was located to indicate drug use. His vehicle was parked and he was advised to have someone pick him up.		BARNES, D.
