Found Property	Shortly before 9 o'clock Wednesday night, officers were called to the 3900 block of Bellemeade Ave for found property. The reporter, stated he is a manager of the apartment and was in the middle of painting it in preparation for the tenant who is to be moving in soon. The reporter stated at around 5:15pm, he got a Facebook message from the tenant, asking if she could have her mail delivered to the apartment. The reporter gave her permission to have her mail sent to her new address. At 8:30pm, the reporter got another message from the tenant, stating her boyfriend had entered her apartment while the reporter was away, and dropped off a backpack for her. The reporter stated he was painting the inside of the apartment when he smelled a strong odor of burnt marijuana coming from somewhere inside. The reporter followed the source of the smell and located a backpack hidden inside a cubby that was located in the living room. Inside the backpack, the reporter discovered an orange Crown Royal bag containing a baggy with a green leafy substance, a digital scale, and an unknown white powdery substance. The reporter then called police and reported the backpack. The backpack and its contents were seized by police and booked into evidence. The green leafy substance field tested positive for marijuana and had a field weight of 21.5 grams. The white powdery substance was not tested due to safety concerns. The reporter was given a case number with instructions on how to obtain a copy of his report. Moments after officers left, the reporter called police back, stating a black male who is believed to be the tenant's boyfriend, came to the apartment asking about the backpack. When the reporter told the male that he surrendered it to police, the black male took off running. No other description was given.

LW 2106490 Battery- Bodily Injury - Misdemeanor	Officers were dispatched to the 4600 block of Spring Valley Rd in reference to a battery report. The victim stated she got into a verbal argument with a neighbor who threw a drink (possibly water) on her. A report was taken. Curry, Joe Wesley (B M, 37) VICTIM of Battery- Bodily Injury - Misdemeanor (C), at 1805 S Linwood Ave, Evansville, IN, between 04:15, 04/21/2021 and 04:30, 04/21/2021. Reported: 04/21/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $205. Officers were dispatched to this location in reference to an assault in progress. Dispatch advised that the victim was calling in stating that he neighbor came inside and assaulted her. Officers arrived on scene and spoke with victims 2, 3, and 4. Victim 2 stated that she was asleep when the two offenders opened the door to victim 4`s apartment. Victim 2 stated that Offender 1 got on top of her and started repeatedly punching her until she was finally able to get her off with the help of Victim 4. Victim 2 stated that as Victim 2 and Offender 1 were separated, Offender 1 fell onto him while he was sleeping and began to punch and scratch him as well. Victim 3 stated that he was able to get Offender 1 off of him, but then Offender 2 came in and began to punch him repeatedly. Victim 3 stated that the offenders were yelling "we got you now." Victim 2 stated that she did not know why the offenders would do this, except that the two offenders are in a relationship together, and Victim 2 was once with Offender 2. Victim 3 later told officers that he believes it was partially due to Victim 2, but also believes that it is because the two offenders have been accusing them of stealing their phone. Victim 4 stated that she was just a witness to the events, and that it is her apartment and did not give the two offenders permission to enter her apartment. Victim 2 and 3 both had visible swelling and injuries to their face. Victim 2, who had swelling on the left side of her face with scratches and redness, was photographed by officers. Victim 3, who had swelling on the right side of his forehead and a large scratch next to his right eye, was also photographed. While officers were on scene with the original 3 victims, other officers were dispatched to 1817 S Linwood in reference to a similar run. Officers determined that these were related incidents. Officers spoke with Victim 1, who stated that he was sitting in his apartment living room nearly asleep. Victim 1 stated that the two offenders then came into his apartment without permission and took his cell phone and cigarettes and then left without saying anything. Witness 1 on scene later told officers that Victim 1 knew the offenders and did let the offenders in, but they took his items as they were leaving the apartment. Witness 1 was concerned to tell officers this because she was homeless and did not want Victim 1 to kick her out of the apartment. Officers attempted to make contact with the two offenders at 1803 S Linwood, but were unsuccessful. All of the involved victims were provided with a case number in reference to the case.		BROWN, S. A.
