Reported: 04/12/2021. I, Officer J. Holden, was working EPD Records when a dispatched run came out at 4611 Washington Ave reference criminal mischief report. I contacted the reporter via TX. The reporter stated the suspect came into the store with the involved other. The suspect got upset because they could not get to the involved other`s vehicle in as quickly as he was hoping for. The suspect stormed out of the business, kicking the front door on his way out. The suspect caused the glass to crack and while speaking with the reporter on the phone, the crack was spidered all the way to the top. The involved other offered to pay for the damages. The reporter called the suspect and told him he broke their door, and he stated he saw it was broken as he was leaving, stated it was not intentional, and he thought he broke his toe. The suspect would not return to the scene. The reporter was given a case number.

Officers located a male matching the description and stopped him at Kentucky and Reis. After searching the suspect officers located a knife in the suspect`s front right pocket of his shorts. With the knife officers located a blue pipe with burnt residue. The pipe had an odor that, based on my training and experience, is consistent with burnt marijuana. After locating the pipe officers also located a small black pipe and dark container in the suspects front left pocket of his sweat pants. The black pipe also contained burnt residue and had the odor that based on my training and experience I knew to be consistent with burnt marijuana. The dark colored container contained a clear plastic baggy. The baggy contained "Shake" or small particles of marijuana seeds, leaves, or stems. LW 2105921 Theft- Shoplifting - Nibrs	Officers were called to the parking lot of 1200 N Willow for a person down. Upon arrival, officers made contact with a white female that was sitting in her car, coming in and out of consciousness. The female was offered, but refused medical attention. Officers detected the odor of marijuana and removed the female from her car. While removing the female, officers located a container in plain view on the driver`s seat, that contained a green leafy substance. During a search of the car, officers located a metal pipe with a burnt green leafy substance inside. The female was informed of her Miranda rights and agreed to waive them to speak with officers. The female stated the green leafy substance and paraphernalia were not her`s and she wasn`t sure how they got there. The female was cited for possession of marijuana and paraphernalia (see UTT: 8220150494). Officers afforded the female an opportunity to call someone to come and pick her and her vehicle up. The female was subsequently released. Officers later field tested the green leafy substance. The substance tested positive for synthetic marijuana and had a field weight of less than one gram. Wal-mart Evansville East #0126 VICTIM of Theft- Shoplifting - Nibrs (C), at 401 N Burkhardt Rd, Evansville, IN, between 16:15, 04/12/2021 and 16:26, 04/12/2021. Reported: 04/12/2021. Officers were dispatched to 3900 Washington Avenue (St. Vincent Hospital Mental Unit) for a battery report. Upon arrival, officers located the victim B. Wright and the offender, who was a patient in the mental unit at the hospital. According to Wright, the offender was being belligerent so they made an attempt to sedate and restrain her. The offender began fighting the staff in order to prevent them from giving her the sedation medication. The staff said the offender became upset because they took away her phone privileges. She then began throwing and breaking property in the hospital unit. The staff then made attempts to restrain her and sedate her. Then at some point during the altercation, the offender grabbed Wright, by the hair, on both sides of her head and struck Wright`s head against the wall multiple times. As the physical altercation continued, the offender made verbal threats that she would kill her. Wright had no visible injuries, but did have a complaint of pain to her head. The offender said she was being poisoned. She thought this because her icecream tasted like the cleaning solution Pinesol. She said the altercation started because she wouldn`t let the hospital staff give her more poison. The offender was placed in hospital restraints before officers left the property. The staff was advised to make a copy of the security footage, take it to headquarters, and submit it for evidence. Wright was given a case number and a report was submitted.	DUFF, J.
