Reported: 04/16/2021. The two victims stated they have lived here at this address for a few months. On today`s date, one victim was in her bedroom on a conference call from 0730-1100 and around 1100 she heard a loud banging sound through her headphones. The victim called her roommate to see if she might have come home early from work. The roommate advised she had not. The victims checked the apartment and found that a door previously secured that went to the building attic had been forced and the padlock was dangling. Nothing was missing and the apartment and attic were cleared. The females are attempting to secure the door better and will call if they see anything suspicious.	THOMAS, C. D.
LW 2106199	Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage	Jefferys, Tracy Lilly (W F, 41) VICTIM of Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage (C), at 2838 Pennsylvania St, Evansville, IN, between 06:00, 04/16/2021 and 14:00, 04/16/2021. Reported: 04/16/2021. Officer Sammet and I were dispatched to a hit and run call on Pennsylvania St. We spoke with the victim, who stated that she believes that a white van belonging to a neighbor on the west side of her home, struck her vehicle sometime this morning. She described the van as being an older large white custom type van. She stated the neighbors have been parking the van on the west side of her home for a couple weeks now, and they leave for work early in the morning. The damage was on the right side rear of the victim`s vehicle, with traces of white paint on the damaged area. The victim`s vehicle was facing northeast on her property located in a back alley. The neighbors van was parked west of the vehicle facing away from it. The victim believes the neighbor had to back up to turn around to exit the alley, and in doing so, struck her vehicle on the right side rear. The possible suspect was not there at the time of our arrival, so we did not speak with them. A hit and run report was filled out and a case number was given to the victim.	DARAKJIAN, J. J.
