LW 2106246 Traffic-op W/o Ins [ai]	Society VICTIM of Traffic-op W/o Ins [ai] (C), at 1499 S Governor St/taylor Ave, Evansville, IN, between 02:57, 04/17/2021 and 03:26, 04/17/2021. Reported: 04/17/2021. I officer Siegel and Officer Rasche were on scene for a shots fired run when a vehicle came down the road at a high rate of speed before coming to an abrupt halt just short of the crime scene tape that was established to secure the scene of the shots fired. We informed the driver that she had to turn around and go the other way at which point she backed up into a parked SUV. Contact was made with the driver and she was found to be driving on a suspended license. There was also no insurance on the vehicle and the vehicle had false plates affixed. Vehicle was towed from the scene by Tri State Towing.	SIEGEL, M. L.
LW 2106249 Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine (C), at 926 W Illinois St, Evansville, IN, between 04:20, 04/17/2021 and 04:50, 04/17/2021. Reported: 04/17/2021. We were dispatched to this address reference a disorderly conduct. A neighboring apartment called stated a subject here was screaming, hollering, and throwing things around. We arrived on scene the apartment door was open and the suspect brother let us in. We found the suspect in a back bedroom yelling and holding his chest saying he was dying. AMR was called. While waiting for AMR, I, Ofc. Harrington, observed the suspects brother trying to reach or hide something under a nearby couch. I had Ofc. Stepro assist me and look to see what was under the couch while I kept an eye on the brother. Ofc. Stepro retrieved a small plastic baggie filled with a white rock substance. I was informed by Ofc. JT Vancleave later that the suspect claimed the substance was his and not to take his brother to jail. The suspect was taken to Deaconess for medical clearance and then transported to VCCC.	HARRINGTON, M.
LW 2106211 Battery- Domestic	Bratcher, Angel Lee (W F, 20) VICTIM of Battery- Domestic (C), at 822 Covert Ave, Evansville, IN, between 13:00, 04/16/2021 and 14:45, 04/16/2021. Reported: 04/17/2021. I, Ofc B. Hollins, was working off duty at Deaconess Hospital when I was alerted by staff regarding a battery in room 23. I went to the listed room and made contact with the victim, Angel Bratcher, who informed me that she was attacked by her boyfriend. Bratcher stated that she has been dating the offender for some time and he had recently moved into her home about a month prior. She stated both parties were at the listed address when she confronted the offender about his infidelities. Both parties began arguing when the offender began putting his finger in her face. Bratcher stated that the offender then began pushing her. The argument escalated and the offender slapped her in the face twice. A physical altercation ensued and the offender punched Bratcher in the eye and fled the scene. Officers observed that Bratcher's left was extremely swollen. CSU was called to process the scene. Bratcher was advised on how to follow up with charges and how to obtain a protective order.	HOLLINS, B. E.

Officer Sammet and I were called to a theft report on S Barker Ave. The victim, TJ Monks, stated that he had a Interstate battery sitting near his front porch. TJ stated that his neighbor to the north of him had a camera on his home that shows a white male, middle aged wearing a hoodie take the battery from his porch and go to the female suspect`s home. TJ is unsure of the exact date but stated that it was during the heavy snow we received in February. TJ asked the female suspect where his battery was. The suspect said the battery was in the trunk of her vehicle, a red Honda with a Missouri plate. The suspect`s ex husband (IO) had taken the vehicle and when the vehicle was returned, the battery went missing. TJ was given a case number to follow up with charges at the Prosecutor`s Office.

At the listed date and time, officers were dispatched to the intersection of Virginia St/ US Hwy 41 in response to a motor vehicle accident. Before officers could arrive on scene one of the vehicles left the scene.

Officers arrived in the area and spoke to the victim and were able to find the male subject that had left the scene on his scooter. Both parties stated the same information and the suspect was given a citation for hit and run. The suspect`s vehicle was towed due to it being involved in the hit and run. A crash report and a hit and run report were completed.

I was dispatched to the above address for a theft report. I spoke to the victim, Couch, by telephone. She reported that her wallet was stolen this morning.

Couch reported that she was with her cousin and a mutal friend in her vehicle this
