Reported: 05/15/2021. Officers were dispatched to 1311 S Alvord Blvd in reference to a general complaint. Officers arrived on scene and spoke with both involved parties. The caller, Starr Fauquher, stated that she came to 1311 S Alvord Blvd, her mother's residence, to retrieve mail that she believed had been delivered. Fauquher does not and has not lived at this residence in years, but has her mail delivered here because she does not have a stable address for mail. Fauquher stated that she knew a couple of checks had been delivered and she came over to retrieve them. Fauquher stated that when she arrived no one would answer the door. She stated that one of the front windows was open and that she could hear her mother's phone ringing inside. She stated she was yelling toward the window in an attempt to get her mother to give her the mail that had been delivered, and that she was knocking repeatedly. She stated that her mother eventually came to the door and threw her mail outside. She realized that the checks she had come for were not included in the mail so she continued to yell into the residence and knock on the door. She stated that eventually her mother opened the door again and slapped her across the face. Her mother eventually threw the checks out of the house as well. Fauquher stated that the argument continued from the doorway out into the driveway before her brother arrived and convinced her mom to go back inside. Officers spoke with the mother, Kimberly Glaser, who stated that her daughter, Starr Fauquher, showed up at her house without any invitation and began causing a scene. She stated that Fauquher was banging on the door and screaming into the open window, calling her multiple different names. She stated that she did at one point throw most of the mail, except the disputed checks, out of the door. She stated that as she was standing at the screen door her daughter continued yelling and calling her names over the checks. Glaser stated that Fauquher was kicking the front screen door repeatedly and she eventually opened the door to confront her. She stated that Fauquher squared up to her and balled up her fists, and then she smacked her once. She stated her son arrived soon after and convinced her to go inside and just give over the disputed checks.		MALCOMSON, J.

Oil/hashish/	vehicle turn NW onto Riverside Dr. Officers got behind the vehicle, which was driving more than 10 mph over the speed limit. Officers initiated a traffic stop at Riverside and Main St. While speaking with the driver, officers observed a small amount of marijuana shake on the floorboard of the vehicle. The driver was asked to step out. The driver had a small amount of a green leafy substance on his person. Two more bags of green leafy substance were located throughout the vehicle. Based on officers training and experience, the substance was immediately recognized as marijuana. The substance was collected. The driver was issued a citation of possession of marijuana and issued a warning for speeding. The driver was given a court date and time for his misdemeanor citation. His vehicle was not towed and was released on scene after the stop had been completed. All three bags of green leafy substance were weighed and field tested positive for marijuana. The total combined weight was 20.9 grams. The marijuana was bagged and entered into evidence at VCCC.
