LW 2108715	arrived and were pointed towards a white male. Officers approached him and witnessed blood covering his left hand and on his face. The male was highly intoxicated and difficult to understand. The male identified himself as Holden Barnes. Barnes was treated by AMR and officers could see two wounds on the Barnes's left hand. Officers asked Barnes how he got the two wounds and he stated that it was the male who lived downstairs. Officers asked Barnes again about the altercation after being treated he stated he was jumped by two females and a male who lived upstairs. Officers spoke to witnesses outside they all stated that earlier there was an altercation between Barnes and a second male, identified as Wadell Frieson, that both did not want to press charges and separated for the night. The witnesses stated that Wadell left after the initial altercation and he was not on scene at the time of the second altercation. Witnesses stated that after officers left the initial time Barnes came out of his apartment and began knocking on multiple door to different apartments, calling people derogatory terms, and accused them of taking items. Witnesses stated that Barnes opened Frieson's window but did not make entry. After Barnes opened the window he went down stairs and officers arrived. Barnes was unable to give an accurate story of how he became injured. Barnes was taken back to his house.	(C)	DEBLANC, M. E.

Reported: 05/22/2021. Officers were on routine patrol when we observed a Chevrolet Tahoe (IN LIC #CEY509) traveling in the area of Lincoln Avenue and Morton Avenue without a license plate light. Officers initiated a traffic stop, and made contact with the passenger, Triston Smith. As Officers were speaking with Smith they observed in plain view on the dashboard a green leafy substance, which based upon their training and experience they immediately recognized as marijuana. Officers then asked Smith to exit the vehicle and asked him when was the last time he had smoked marijuana. Smith stated that he had just smoked 20 minutes ago, and that the green leafy substance on the dashboard belonged to him. Smith was cited for possession of marijuana and was released from the scene. The driver was given a verbal warning for no plate light. While at the jail in relation to a different traffic stop, Officers weighed the green leafy substance on a zeroed digital scale, and it produced a field weight of 1.2 grams. Officers then tested the green leafy substance using the NARK II Duquenois-Levine Reagent test kit #5, which yielded a positive result for THC. The green leafy substance was properly bagged, labeled, and placed into evidence at the VCCD.	(C)	OAKLEY, J. A.
