LW 2109191 Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine (C), at West Lloyd Expy / Us Hwy 41, Evansville, IN, on 05/27/2021, 23:29. Reported: 05/28/2021. Ofc. Martin and I observed a gray jeep traveling southwest with a tail light illuminated on the driver's side. I followed the vehicle to West Lloyd Expy and performed a traffic stop just west of US Hwy 41. We approached the vehicle and upon contact with the offender, he stated that he had no driver's license, no proof of insurance, and that he had a warrant. The vehicle was occupied by the offender, a passenger and a juvenile passenger. The offender was placed in handcuffs. Upon my search of the offender, I found a plastic bag containing 0.3g of methamphetamines. The offender stated that there were items of paraphernalia in the vehicle, with one of the items containing marijuana. Ofc. Martin and Ofc. Christian, who had arrived on scene, spoke to the passenger of the vehicle. The passenger stated she had one of the items of paraphernalia on her person. The item was confiscated and tested positive for traces of methamphetamine. Upon search of the vehicle, Ofc. Martin found the other item which contained 0.4 grams of marijuana. The narcotic evidence and paraphernalia were taken for evidence and the offender was taken to VCCC for booking. The vehicle was towed to Tri State Towing		DARAKJIAN, J. J.

Reported: 05/28/2021. Officers were dispatched to 1832 Broadmoor Ave in reference to a Domestic Violence in Progress. Dispatch advised the caller stated her husband just attempted to throw her across the room. On scene, officers first made contact with the offender, the ex-husband of the victim, who was outside by his vehicle in the driveway. The offender stated he and the victim got into an argument about the offender cheating. The offender stated the victim took his cell phone and a memorial bracelet. The offender stated while trying to get his property from the victim he pushed her onto the bed in their bedroom. The victim was inside the residence when officers arrived, but stepped out the back door to discuss the incident. The victim stated the offender had previously cheated on her and she suspected he was cheating again. The victim stated she took the offender's phone and located messages between the offender and another female that contained nude images. The victim said she brought this to the offenders attention and that is when they began verbally arguing. The victim stated all of this incident occurred in the bedroom and when the offender tried to get his phone from her, she was pushed onto the bed. The victim had no visible injuries and did not wish to press charges against the offender. The victim stated she thought the two of them could work out this issue and just needed some space to calm down. The offender willingly left for the night and it was agreed between the victim and offender that the offender would return to the residence when the victim needed to leave for work. The victim was given a case number and a report was taken.		AKER, B. W.
