The reporter stated her oldest son just graduated and turned 18 years old and asked if he could spend some time with his father. The reporter stated the children`s father asked if he could take the boys for the weekend and stay at a local hotel on the East side of Evansville. The reporter had not heard from her kids, so she called her oldest son who told her they had been in Nashville, TN all weekend with their dad. The reporter asked her son when they were coming home, since the agreed upon time was Sunday (today). The reporter stated her son was not sure so she called the children`s father. The reporter stated he avoided her phone calls and texts so she called her son back and told him to give the phone to his dad. The reporter stated her children`s father began going off saying he was not bringing the kids back until at least Friday (June 4th). The reporter advised him this is not what they had agreed upon, but he went on to say that his son is 18 and can do what he wants. The reporter acknowledges her son is 18 however their other son is still a juvenile. The reporter was given a case number. I could not view the court document which states the mother has full custody and the father is only suppose to have visitation at the parenting time center.		HOLDEN, J. Reported: 05/30/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $4,000. The victim called 911 stating that someone stole his money. Once I arrived on scene I spoke with the Frazier. Frazier stated that he is engaged to Gee. Today they were drinking and grilling. Gee`s family friend, the victim, was also at the home. Frazier and the victim seemed to be highly intoxicated. They all agreed that the victim was sleeping on the couch and when he woke up he was missing $8000 in cash which was in his pants pocket. The victim stated that he started to get upset and there were other people at the party. They did not know their full names and could only state that they were black males. The victim began to argue with the other males and the children that each of them had. The victim admitted that he started talking about getting a gun when Frazier then found about $4000 of his money behind the yard barn. Frazier stated that the suspects and their children seemed to know something about where the money was. Once police were called the suspects and their children left the scene. The victim was given a case number.		SAMMET, N. P.

Reported: 05/31/2021. On, 5/31/21 at approximately 0103, officers were dispatched to 712 E Florida in reference to narcotics being used at an abandoned house. The caller advised house had burnt down and people were in garage smoking meth. Officers arrived and were able to determine the correct address to be 710 E. Florida. Officer could see the house was burnt and not livable. Officers could hear people talking inside of the garage. I opened to door and announced police as I stepped inside. I noticed 5 people and a dog inside. While speaking to the subjects, the one male identified himself as David. David stated he was the property owner. Officer Harrington began to check to see who the property owner was. A female, identified as Jennifer, was sitting in a chair in front of me. I could see there was a clear baggie tucked inside Jennifer`s bra. I had Jennifer stand up. Jennifer stated it was fake marijuana. Jennifer pulled the clear baggie out and handed it to officers. The baggie contained a green plant like substance. I observed in plain view a clear smoking device with residue sitting on a table. At this time, all occupants were placed into handcuffs. On the table I recovered 2 glass smoking pipes. David was standing next to this table as I walked in the garage. While searching David, I located a white smoking pipe with residue and 2 white rounds pills with marking "I-58." Officer Harrington was able to verify David was the property owner. David and Jennifer were issued citations.
