I, Officer Dennis, was dispatched to 1033 S Weinbach for a stolen motorcycle report. I met with the victim, James Ashby, at Pizza King, which is his place of work and where he was keeping his motorcycle. Ashby stated he had just bought this motorcycle, a Honda UT750 C2F (VIN JH2RC53407M001475) from Hot Rod Sterling (217 N Stockwell Ave), and was not able to make to the BMV to have it plated yet. Ashby did have the current title signed over to him. Ashby stated he last knew it was on the break patio behind Pizza King Saturday, 5/1/21, at approximately 1400 hours just before he got off work. Ashby stated he returned to work today around 1200 hours to discover it missing. Ashby stated he spoke to his boss and his boss stated he has not seen it and thought that Ashby had picked it up. Ashby stated he has the only keys to the motorcycle and it had a steering lock on it at the time he had left it. Ashby attempted to look at camera footage but due to the long period of time of when it could have occurred a suspect was not located. I gave Ashby the CSU video request email if he does locate a suspect. Ashby was given a case number and this report was generated.		DENNIS, K. J.

Reported: 05/05/2021. On 05-05-2021 officers were dispatched to the 1200 block of S Roosevelt Dr in reference to a criminal mischief in progress. Once on scene, the offender, Tavion Ford, was found out front with a laceration to his left hand. Ford stated that he was mad at Jewel Bentley, the victim, for not having sex with him and putting the electric bill into his name without his permission. Ford stated that Bentley threatened him with a knife and told him to get out of the house. Ford stated that he got mad that Bentley kicked him out of the house and began trying to get back inside of the residence. Ford stated that he has been staying at the residence for a few weeks and has been dating Bentley since last October. Ford stated that he got the cut to his left hand by punching out the front door windows. There were two trash bags outside of the address in the front yard with Ford's clothes. Bentley stated that Ford began acting aggressive and trying to kick the front door to the residence in. She stated that Ford basted out two of the front door windows, before grabbing a lamp post and striking her car with it. This caused dents and scratches to the back passenger side door and a crack down the front windshield. A broken lamp post was found next to her car with blood all over it. Bentley denied that Ford is living at the address but stated that he had been staying over there for the past two nights. Case numbers were generated for both involved. Bentley stated that she was going to get a restraining order on Ford later today and Ford was trespassed from the property.	(C)	WINN, K. M.
