LW 2107811 Forced Entry                      Damage	report. Officers spoke with the reporter, Krohn. Krohn stated his son lives in the 3000-block of S Weinbach has been having a problem with a white male, approximately 35-40 years of age, who drives a black Chevy single cab 1500 or 2500. Krohn told officers that his son was walking his dog on Weinbach near the levee when this male stopped next to his son and began yelling at him. This subject this told Krohn`s son that he was going to "kick his ass and take them to jail" and then proceeded to put on a black ball cap that had "EPD" stitched on the front, similar to the one that most officers wear on duty. Krohn`s son then stated the truck continued southbound on Weinbach. Krohn`s son told his father that incident happened a few weeks ago but had another incident with that same truck today. That truck ran Krohn`s son off the road by swerving into Krohn`s son`s lane coming head on and then turned around on him, then continued South on Weinbach. Krohn stated he is concerned about the situation since the subject pretended to be a police officer. Krohn also stated that his son is afraid to call the police. Krohn had pictures of the truck from the local scrap yard in the area. Pictures of the truck was sent to the EPD CSU email with the case number attached. Due to not having a victim in this situation a general incident was completed. Forced Entry Damage (C), at 1804 S Garvin St, Evansville, IN, between 18:13, 05/09/2021 and 18:14, 05/09/2021.
