She pulled her car over on Fares just north of Morgan. The suspect vehicle pulled up behind her. Two white males exited the vehicle. The driver stated he wanted to exchange information. When the victim took out her cell phone and said she was going to call 911, the males got back in the car and drove north on Fares. They ran the light at Maxwell and were last seen heading toward Diamond Ave. As they drove off, the driver dropped a piece of paper with a name and telephone number on it. That information will be on the officer narrative. The subject was not in RMS. The victim said that the SUV reminded her of a Buick but she couldn't say with certainty the make or model. The suspect was described as middle aged with no distinguishing features. The victim gave a possible Kentucky plate of GF370. I was unable to get a return through BMV. Victim's insurance information: State Farm Police #: 3080575D2714F Agent tx: 812-8537301 | MCCONNELL, J. |
