Reported: 06/26/2021. On 06-26-2021 around 0800 hours the victim called 911 to request a Standby. After meeting with the Victim he stated he was going to 1513 S Garvin to get his white 2008 Cadillac Escalade pickup. The Victim stated he had left his truck and keys here with the Offender on June 9th. At that time his truck was broken down and not running. Later that day the Victim was arrested in Warrick county after an altercation between him and Offender. He got released on the morning of the 11th and started trying to make arrangements to get his truck that day. Since then he has several text conversations from him trying to get his truck back and the Offender giving him the run-around. He has threatened to call the police but the Offender does not seem to care. Several times the Offender has texted saying someone would be bringing his truck back and they never show up. Today when the victim requested a standby his truck was not on scene and there was no answer at the door. The Victim had texted the Offender last night advising him he would be coming to pick it up this morning. He tried calling the Offender on the phone while we were on scene and got no answer. At this point the Victim decided he had given the Offender long enough to return his truck and requested a stolen vehicle report be taken. He was given a case number and records was notified to enter the vehicle into NCIC. The vehicle is described as a fully stock, white, 2008 Cadillac Escalade truck with no unique features or damage. The Victim was advised to call back if he locates the vehicle or it is returned.		GREEN, R. E.

LW 2111293 Battery- Domestic	Bowen, Andrea Leigh (W F, 47) VICTIM of Battery- Domestic (C), at 3525 Jackson Ave, Evansville, IN, between 09:10, 06/26/2021 and 09:19, 06/26/2021. Reported: 06/26/2021. The VI and OF used to date and were intimate, but are now just room mates. Today the VI became upset with the OF and asked him to leave. The VI then went to her room. The OF knocked and told the VI that he had stuff in her room and wanted to get it. The VI refused to let him in and told the OF that there was nothing in her room belonging to him. The OF became enraged and pushed the door open. Once he gained access to the VI's room, he began punching her in the face and head with a closed fist. The VI tried to get a way and grab her phone to call police. The OF grabbed her phone and destroyed it, thus preventing her from calling 911. The OF eventually left in his white Acura. The VI sustained a large whelp above her left eye, bruising/bumps to her head, and a bloody nose. AMR truck# 4123 transported the VI to St. Vincent for treatment. A more accurate assessment of her injuries will be available once she has been medically examined. The VI states that there was also a white female with the OF, but only knows her by her first name, Ashley. Crime Scene was busy, so I recorded the VI's injuries on my body camera.		PYLANT, R. E.

LW 2111298 Communication- Intimidation	White Ford Freestyle with sun roof and cracked windshield. No plate. Gentry, Kegan James Lee (W M, 23) VICTIM of Communication- Intimidation (C), at 2119 E Morgan Ave, Evansville, IN, between 11:35, 06/26/2021 and 11:43, 06/26/2021. Reported: 06/26/2021. Officers were dispatched to a harassment in progress in the area of the LA Z Boy warehouse at 709 Oak Hill Rd. Officers were advised that the victim had pulled into the parking lot at the IGA on Morgan Avenue. Officer went there to speak with the victim and two passenger in his car. The victim stated that he is a manager at the LA Z Boy warehouse on Oak Hill Road. He stated that they had to fire the suspect for a multitude of reasons, including drug use and threatening other employees. The victim states that another manager fired the suspect while he went to the Fast Break gas station at Oak Hill Rd/ Morgan Ave with his girlfriend and a coworker. The victim states he received a text from the suspect minutes before the altercation. This text said that the victim "knew what would happen if [he] got [the suspect] fired from work". Based on prior threatening texts from the suspect, the victim took this as a threat. The victim states that while he was leaving the gas station, the suspect pulled into the lot in a dramatic fashion and charged toward his car. The victim and two other passengers immediately left the gas station lot in their car and drove south on Oak Hill Rd. The suspect followed them and eventually pulled up next to them in the bike lane. The suspect yelled that he was going to "beat [the victim`s] ass". The victim states that the suspect then pulled off on a side road. The victim went to the IGA lot and was notified by other employees that the suspect had continued to drive by the warehouse in a silver Ford Fusion. The victim`s coworker and girlfriend corroborated this story. The coworker states that the suspect normally carries a handgun in his car but did not produce it during the altercation. The victim was advised to seek a protective order and requested that the victim be barred from the company property. Officers checked the area the suspect vehicle was last seen but were unable to locate the suspect. Victim was advised to seek a protective order.		KLEIN, P. T.
LW 2111302 Theft- Shoplifting - Nibrs	Walmart N Burkhardt, Store #1263 VICTIM of Theft- Shoplifting - Nibrs (C), at 401 N Burkhardt Rd, Evansville, IN, between 13:15, 06/26/2021 and 13:55, 06/26/2021. Reported: 06/26/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $100. Officers were dispatched to 401 N Burkhardt Road (Walmart) in regard to a theft in progress. Central Dispatch advised that a white male wearing all black had stolen items from the store and was running toward Home Depot. Central Dispatch also advised that the suspect was getting into a silver Ford Ranger and was last seen driving south-bound on Burkhardt Road. Detective Montgomery was in the area, but did not locate the vehicle. Upon arriving, I met with the reporter and the involved other, who work as loss prevention agents at Walmart. The reporter advised that the white male offender entered Walmart and started selecting clothing merchandise. The reporter said that he observed the offender walk up to the self-check out counter #49 and begin scanning items that he had selected. The reporter said he noticed a tag hanging off one of the first items he scanned. The reporter believed that the tag was false, as he noticed that there was tape on it. The reporter looked over the offender`s shoulder		EAGLESON, R. C.

	as he scanned a tool kit, and noticed that it registered as something less expensive as the tag was false. The reporter said this is called "tag switching," a common way shoplifters attempt to make more expensive items less expensive at checkout. The reporter advised that the offender rendered payment only for incorrect amount (since he had tag switched), passed all points of purchase, and exited the store through the general merchandise doors. The reporter and involved other advised they stopped the offender in the vestibule. The offender gave the reporter back all of the stolen clothing, but did not stay as they requested. The offender ran out of the store toward parking lot isle #1, where his silver Ford Ranger was parked facing west. The reporter advised he could not get a license plate number for the vehicle. The offender got into the driver's seat, started the vehicle, and then drove toward Burkhardt Road. The offender went south on Burkhardt Road, then west on the Lloyd Expressway until out of sight.
