LW 2109576 Battery - Against Public Safety Official Engaged In Official	Gorman, Seth Alexander (W M, 26) VICTIM of Battery - Against Public Safety Official Engaged In Official (C), at 101 Nw Sixth St, Evansville, IN, between 22:20, 06/02/2021 and 22:33, 06/02/2021. Reported: 06/02/2021. Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to a check welfare. Upon arrival, officers made contact with two males and one female subjects that appeared to be under the influence of alcoholic beverage and synthetic marijuana. While officers were talking to the female (offender) she attempted to walk away. Officers advised that she was at the Met`s Bus Station and that she was trespassing. Officers also observed a yellow "No Trespassing" sign right above where the female was sitting. Officers advised to the female that she needed to sit down and identify herself, but she refused. The female still stood up and officers grabbed the female so she would have a seat. The female then pulled away from officers and she then was placed in custody with minimal amount of force. While officers were speaking to her the female gave a false name. Officers were eventually able to find the female in RMS which showed that she had a misdemeanor warrant out of Vanderburgh County. The female also had a complaint of pain to her handcuffs. Officers began to check on the tightness of the handcuffs and while doing so the female grabbed the officers right hand. The female squeezed her nails in the right palm of the officers and would not let go. While the officer was attempting to pull away she was able to get her left hand free. Minimal amount of force was used to place her back in custody. Officers then walked her over to the curb so she could have a seat while we were waiting for the transport wagon. The female would not take a seat on the curb so minimal amount of force was used. After the female had a seat on the curb she began to kick her legs. Officers then attempted to control her movements by placing their hands on her legs. While doing so the female then bit officers on the hand. The female was transported to VCCC and booked in with the listed charges without incident.		GORMAN, S. A.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2109513 Theft - Firearm	scammed. She said she gave several thousands of dollars to several "handlers" over the phone. Some of it was cash and other monies in gift cards. The scammers were contacting her by her cell phone from a number out of Clint Texas. She was told there was a warrant for her arrest out of Florida. She was convinced. I ran her name NCIC and she had no warrants and was not in RMS. She had ran up a few credit cards, had some retirement money from Edward Jones sent and all her life savings. They had even convinced her they would take care of her tax returns, so she didn't file taxes for 2020. She has done all this over the phone. Compton, Camri Blair (B F, 21) VICTIM of Theft - Firearm (C), at 1650 S Evans Ave, Evansville, IN, between 23:00, 06/01/2021 and 11:10, 06/02/2021. Reported: 06/02/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $300.		JOLLY, M. R.
LW 2109516 Damaged Basketball Goal	Reporter called to report her firearm stolen from her vehicle. Damaged Basketball Goal (C), at 1109 Stanley Ave, Evansville, IN, on 06/02/2021, 11:11. Reported: 06/02/2021. No victims listed. I was dispatched to the listed address in reference to a basketball goal that had been struck by a dump truck. I arrived on scene and met with the owner of the basketball goal who advised me that his goal was set up in the roadway when the dump truck hit the goal and knocked it over. I could see that the rim had been broken away from the goal. The IO stated that he did not intent on hitting the goal, but the WI was parked on the other side of the street causing a very narrow path for him to get through with heavy equipment. The IO thought he had made it through, but the net of the goal got caught on his mirror and pulled the goal down. The IO stated he got out of his vehicle and assessed the damage when the Owner of the goal came out of his home with several other people irate. The IO saw the situation rapidly deteriorating, so he got in his truck and drove down the street to his business to wait for me to arrive. The Witness advised that the IO hit the goal and was assessing the situation when the Owner of the goal came out and the confrontation got very heated. The witness agreed with me when I said that both parties could have handled themselves better in this situation. It is against city ordinance for a basketball goal to be in the street or on a sidewalk. The owner of the goal became irate with me when I informed him of this, despite me trying to deescalate the situation. The owner was completely unreasonable.		HASSLER, N. L.
LW 2109523 Theft : A : M	Cedar Trace Apartments VICTIM of Theft : A : M (C), at 2200 N Seventh Ave, Evansville, IN, between 04:00, 06/02/2021 and 08:00, 06/02/2021. Reported: 06/02/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $500. Officers were dispatched to this location in reference to a theft from the drop box for rent checks. RP advised that when she arrived this morning only one personal check was in the drop box. RP stated that she watched the cameras and observed a black male taking the checks out of the drop box. The male was wearing a hood and a mask so his identity was not able to be obtained from the video. It appears that the offender used a string with some sort of sticky tape to fish down into the drop box and remove the checks one by one. The subject took what the RP believes to be money orders from the box. RP does not know what checks were taken or how many. RP was given a case number for insurance purposes. RP will call back if the amount of the checks and number of checks is able to be confirmed. Unknown if the subject will be able to do anything with the checks.		NUTT, C. W.
