On scene, a co-owner of the business pointed out two bullet holes on the south facing metal siding on the building. The co-owner also showed officers a company vehicle that was positioned in the southwest corner of the parking lot. This vehicle had a bullet hole in the rear lift gate and what appeared to be a bullet trace mark along the driver`s side rear pillar. One of the bullets that struck the building appeared to enter the attic space. The second bullet passed through the exterior wall and entered an interior wall where it appeared to stop inside the wall. The company vehicle had damage to the exterior where the bullets struck and the driver`s side sliding door window was shattered. Inside the company vehicle, a bullet fragment was recovered just inside the passenger side sliding door. After reviewing security camera footage, it was discovered that at approximately 2300 hours on 06/26/2021 a vehicle was seen traveling east on Covert Ave and turned south on Hawthorne Ave. The vehicle could be seen stopping just south of the intersection of Covert Ave/Hawthorne Ave on Hawthorne Ave. Shortly after the vehicle stopped, muzzle flashes could be seen coming from the same area. There was a group of four subjects that could be seen walking east on Covert Ave who appeared to the intended target. The crime scene unit was notified and responded to the scene to take photographs and collect evidence. After the footage was reviewed, officers located several shell casings near the southeast corner of Book Brooker. The co-owner was given a case number and a report was taken.		AKER, B. W.

Upon arriving, I met with the reporter, a Walmart loss prevention employee. Reporter 1 advised that he observed the offender walk up to self check out counter #44 and began scanning items. The reporter noticed that the offender used tags from less expensive merchandise and scanned it in place of the more expensive items, making it look as if she was scanning the more expensive items. This is commonly referred to as "tag switching." The reporter also mentioned that the offender had items concealed in her purse that she did not attempt to scan at all. The offender rendered payment for the incorrect total (since she tag switched and concealed items in her purse), walked passed all points of purchase without rendering proper payment, and exited the store using the general merchandise doors. The reporter advised that he stopped the offender in the vestibule and escorted her to the loss prevention office. I entered the loss prevention office and made contact with the offender. I asked the offender if she stole items from the store. The offender admitted to me that she stole several items by switching tags from merchandise in the store because she was trying to purchase her granddaughter some shoes. The reporter provided me with a receipt of the total value of stolen/recovered merchandise, which totaled to $103.64 (before adding taxes). I noticed that more than shoes were stolen (which included women`s clothing, consumable items, and dental hygiene products). The offender was cited and released. The reporter was provided with a case number for his reference. The reporter also advised the incident was captured on camera and he would provide EPD Records with the evidence as soon as he could.
