Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
Knowing Presence Of Child Less Than 1	Officers were dispatched to the intersection of Lafayette Ave/Maryland St in regards to a domestic violence. Upon arriving all subjects were separated. The Victim advised that she was here visiting with friends. She has been letting her son stay with his father (OF) primarily while back. The Victim was going to the OF's place to spend time with her son. The OF in turn had gone to the courts recently and requested that his child support be stopped claiming that he was the primary provider for the child. The Victim today had come over and an argument occurred. According to a neighbor, IO-H.F., she said she her heard them arguing over money. She never saw anything physical. At some point she had taken the child into her apartment. According to the Victim they were arguing over the child and the fact that she was taking him from his visit with his father and going back to Florida where they both reside with the Victim's mother. According to the OF they were arguing over the child and he didn't want the child to leave with his mother. The OF said that the Victim had attacked him and scratched him but there were no visible injuries. I spoke with the child who spontaneously said that his "daddy needs to put the gun up" and that he had pushed his mother into the water puddle. I could see a cut to the Victim's left knee. While speaking with the child he kept telling his Mom that he wanted to leave. He wanted to go back to FL and see his grandma. The Victim wasn't wanting to pursue charges because she's leaving to go back to FL soon and doesn't want to come back for a trial. There is no legal paperwork for visitation, only child support.

Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Injury Crash	I was dispatched to the above intersection, Vann Ave and Pollack Ave, for a motor vehicle accident with property damage. While en route, Central Dispatch advised that one of the vehicles left the scene.
	I arrived to the scene and spoke to the victim, Brooks. She stated she was traveling eastbound on Pollack Avenue and was stopped at the stop sign located at the intersection of Pollack Avenue and Vann Avenue. She reported while she was stopped she was hit from behind by the suspect's vehicle. Brooks stated the suspect initially spoke with her about the accident, but as she was contacting Central Dispatch the suspect left southbound on Vann Avenue. The collision occurred at the intersection on Pollack Avenue, west of Vann Avenue, but upon me arriving Brooks had went through the intersection and was pulled over on Pollack Avenue now east of Vann Avenue.
	Brooks reported the suspect to be a black male, approximately 5`10 to 5`11 and weighing about 170 to 180lbs. He had dreads in his hair, possibly was wearing glasses, and was wearing a blue shirt. He was driving an older model, black, Toyota Camry. She could not recall any significant details about the suspect's vehicle.
	I spoke to a witness who resides on Pollack Avenue in a home that sits on the northside of Pollack Avenue, just east of Vann Avenue. She reported she saw the black male return to his vehicle and leave the scene of the incident. She stated he went southbound on Vann Avenue. She saw that he was missing part of his rear, driver's side bumper. She also stated his license plate was the "American Flag" (In God We Trust).
	Brooks complaint of neck pain from the jolt of being hit from behind by the suspect's vehicle. She was not sure if she would be seeking immediate medical care.

LW 2109829 Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report	Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report (C), at 5301 Stonehedge Dr, Evansville, IN, between 20:04, 06/06/2021 and 20:08, 06/06/2021. Reported: 06/06/2021. No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to the above address for a domestic violence in progress. Officers were advised that a male and a female were involved in a physical altercation in the parking lot of the apartment complex, Abbey Court Apartments. Officers were also informed the male had left the scene in a vehicle and the female had gone into an unknown apartment on the backside of the apartment complex. Officers arrived and spoke to two witnesses. W1 stated he heard a female yelling and saying, "What did you take from my apartment?" He saw the female standing in a grassy area of the parking lot and observed a male come behind the female, put his arms around her, and "slam" her to the ground. He stated he did not see where the male went, but saw the female go to behind the apartment complex possibly to a back apartment. Another witness on scene stated she heard the female yelling, as reported by W1, and saw the male slam the female to the ground. She stated she did not see where the male went, but relayed there was a white SUV with the couple that left after the incident. The witnesses described the male to be a black male, around 20 years of age, approximately 5`11 and weighing 160lbs. He possibly had longer hair. Officer located the female involved in the incident at an apartment within the apartment complex. Officers could overhear the female speaking with another person, possibly on the phone, referring to "police." She was not forthcoming with information and would not state there was a physical altercation. She was not receptive with filing a report, providing her identifying information, or providing the male`s identifying information. She would not state if she had injuries. She did confirm that her vehicle was not taken by the male, nor was her phone.		HOWARD, K. E.
