Reported: 06/08/2021. Officers were called to 4800 with regard to a patient striking a nurse while she was tending to said patient. The patient is under observation with a possible aneurysm, but is coherent and aware of his surroundings and self. He denied striking the female nurse. He insisted he had struck the male nurse. He said the victim was `trying to choke him`. He then said the victim was trying to steal his money. The offender does not have any property in the room with him beyond his cellphone. The victim had redness to her clavicle area and complained of pain. She said she wanted to press charges. The offender was administered a sedative for the evening and will not be released from the hospital at this time.		ADAMS, H. D.
