Reported: 06/09/2021. Officers were dispatched to the above address for a domestic violence in progress call. Central Dispatch advised a female, victim, and male, offender were involved in a physical altercation that resulted in the female possibly fracturing her ankle. As officers were arriving, Central Dispatch advised the offender had left the scene. I arrived on scene and spoke to the victim. She reporter her and the offender, boyfriend, were involved in a verbal altercation stemming over possession of a cell phone charging cord. In the midst of both parties trying to retrieve the cord from each other the victim stated the offender pushed her onto the bed. She reported she stood up and the offender moved past her to exit the room which resulted in her losing her balance. She stated she lost her balance and fell to the floor resulting in her injuring her ankle. I was informed the offender left the scene in a gray, Nissan Versa. Officers made contact with the offender and met with him at a different location. He stated that he and the victim were in a verbal altercation regarding the phone cord, but that he did not push the victim. The victim was transported by AMR #0303 to Deaconess Midtown for further evaluation of her ankle injury. She was provided with a case number and domestic violence resources.		HOWARD, K. E.

Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage	Officers were dispatched to the intersection of Fairway Dr and First Ave for an accident. When officers arrived, it appeared three vehicles were involved. After speaking to the drivers and a witness, it was determined a fourth vehicle was involved and had left the scene. One driver and the witness stated the fourth vehicle pulled out in front of him from Fairway Dr. The driver stated he slammed his brakes to avoid a crash, but was unsuccessful. The sudden stop caused the other two drivers to run into each other.
	The witness and other drivers described the suspect vehicle as an early 2000s model black Ford Taurus with a large crack in the front windshield. The vehicle is also likely to have damage to the driver's side as a result of this incident. The vehicle was last seen northbound on First Ave from Fairway Dr.
	The drivers on scene exchanged information and were given a copy of this case number. One vehicle was towed due to disabling damage.

Theft- Shoplifting - Nibrs	Officer were dispatched to the above address, Iphone Smart Repair, for a theft report. I contacted the business owner, Liu, by telephone. He stated that two cell phones were stolen from his store this afternoon by two unknown, white females.
	Liu reported the two offenders have patroned his store approximately ten times prior to today. He stated at the time of the incident he was not in his store, but later reviewed the security camera footage. He reported today one of the cell phone display cases was open due to an employee assisting a customer. He stated while the display was open one of the offenders distracted the employee while the other offender took two cell phones. Both offenders left the store in a black, 4 door pick-up truck. He stated the truck had some type of "water tank" in the back. He was not certain on the direction of travel, but thought they may have went toward Green River Road.
	Liu stated one of the cell phones stolen today was a black, Iphone 12 Pro, AT&T. He was not sure what type of other phone was stolen.
	He stated both offenders were white females. One offender was approximately 60 years old, around 5`2, 100-110lbs, blonde hair, and wearing a purple dress. The other female was approximately 22 to 25 years old, around 5`3, 110-120lbs, and wearing a black tank-top with a jean skirt. She was holding a baby. Both offenders had blonde hair, but the younger female had brown underneath her blonde hair.
	Liu stated he has security camera footage of the offenders and the incident. He was provided with a case number. He was instructed on how to submit his video footage and how to provide further information on the second phone that was stolen.

Reported: 06/09/2021. Officers were dispatched to 551 N Boeke Rd, Wesselmans Park, in reference to an Assault in Progress. As officers entered the park, a group of juveniles and several adults were standing around a truck in the parking lot by the basketball courts. Several of the adults in the group flagged officers down and advised they were the ones who called. The victim was in the driver`s seat of the truck and was still on the phone with dispatch. The victim agreed to step out of the vehicle to explain what happened. The victim stated he arrived at the park to conduct a child exchange with the mother of his child. The victim stated the husband of the child`s mother, the offender, was also at the park and he came over to where the victim was causing a disturbance. The victim stated the offender struck him in the face one time and walked away. The offender was still on scene, playing basketball. The offender stated he heard the victim arguing with his wife so he went over to confront the victim. The offender stated nothing physical happened, he and the victim were verbally arguing only. The victim had what appeared to a minor injury to his lower lip. The victim was given a case number, advised on how to follow up with charges, and a report was taken.		AKER, B. W.
