The VI's do not want the OF living with them, which has angered the OF. The OF will still show up at their house, regardless of the VI's wishes. Last night, the OF showed up and let himself in to the VI's house and advised the VI's that he was going to stay the night. VI#1 told the OF that he couldn't stay the night and that they would get in trouble with their land lord. The argument became heated and the OF grabbed a knife from the kitchen drawer, pointed toward VI#1 and threatened to kill him and VI#2 if they called police, or kicked him out. The OF also stated, that if they called police, he would go outside with an empty gun and commit suicide by cop. The OF has also threatened the VI's with physical bodily harm if they call police. The VI's state that they are both scared to go home and in fear for their life. VI#1 added that the OF is strung out on drugs and has violent tendencies.	PYLANT, R. E.

Reported: 07/08/2021. Officers were dispatched to the area of Fifth Ave/Dresden St. in reference to a battery that had just occurred on 7/8/21 at 2324hrs. The argument started over the victim being shorted money from buying alcohol at the liquor store. The victim's friend went in to buy the money and brought the change out and the victim stated that was not the right amount. The friend and victim got into an argument over the money and when they got back to the apartments at Fifth Ave/Dresden Ave a physical altercation ensued with the friend slapping the victim in the face. The slap caused no injuries. After the slap they continued arguing and that is when the offender (the friend's boyfriend) stepped into the fight and started punching the victim in the head. Once the offender stopped assaulting the victim, he ran off to an apartment near by. The victim looked all through the vehicle they arrived in and could not find her phone. There is not enough evidence to support whether the phone was lost or stolen at this time. The offender was located at an apartment nearby along with the friend who had a misdemeanor warrant.	TABOR, A. Y.
