I was dispatched to 335 S Red Bank Road in regard to a shoplifter. Central Dispatch advised that Walmart loss prevention had detained an adult female in the office without an identification. Upon arriving, I entered the loss prevention office and met with a Walmart loss prevention employee (reporter). I also observed an adult female sitting on a bench, later identified as the offender. I asked the reporter what happened. The reporter advised to me that he observed the offender in the store selecting merchandise. He observed the offender conceal merchandise in her purse and underneath of it in the top portion of the shopping cart. He also mentioned that the offender placed a few items into the main shopping cart compartment. The reporter said he observed the offender walk to self-check out #33 and scan and pay for only the items in the main compartment of the shopping cart. He said that the offender never attempted to scan or pay for the items in her purse and those underneath of them. The reporter said that she rendered payment for only the scanned items, walked passed all points of purchase, and exited through the general merchandise		EAGLESON, R. C.

LW 2112769	doors. The reporter advised that he stopped the offender in the vestibule by verbally identifying himself as Walmart loss prevention while showing his Walmart identification card. The reporter advised that he was able to recover all of the stolen property from the offender's immediate possession. The reporter detained the offender in the loss prevention office until I arrived. I turned to the offender and asked how old she was. She advised that she was in her thirties. I also asked the offender if she had any prior convictions or theft. She advised she did not. I asked for the offender's personal information, including her name and date of birth. I then looked up her Indiana court cases on My Case and learned that she had a prior conviction for theft (cause number: 65D01-1101-FD-000019; Guilty date: 04/12/2021). I informed the offender that she was being detained so I must read her the Miranda Warning. I read the offender the Miranda Warning and asked if she understood her rights. The offender advised she understood her rights and agreed to speak with me. I asked the offender for her side of the story. The offender advised admitted that she concealed items in her purse and purposefully did not pay for them because she did not have the money to do so. She advised that she was able to render payment for some of the items, but not all. The offender knew that she was stealing the items. The items were mostly children's toy clothing for dolls, birthday cards, fidget pops, and bags. The total value of the stolen and recovered merchandise was $115.00. The reporter advised that he had video footage of the offender concealing the items in the store, failing to render payment for the items at the self-checkout, and walking passed all points of purchase with the stolen merchandise. I also observed on the video footage showing the reporter identifying himself to the offender with his Walmart identification card in the vestibule. The reporter advised he would submit the video footage for evidence. Since the offender has an unrelated prior conviction, she was placed into custody using double-locked handcuffs and transported to the Vanderburgh County Jail under the listed charge. My involvement of the incident was captured on my department-issued body-worn camera.	Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 3951 Bellemeade Ave, Evansville, IN, on 07/08/2021, 11:30. Reported: 07/15/2021. Reported: 07/15/2021. Officers were dispatched to 1020 W Delaware Street in regard to a criminal mischief report. Central Dispatch advised that the victim wanted to file a report against the offender for damaging her vehicle on 07/14/2021. I contacted the victim via telephone since the incident occurred the other day. I made contact with the victim and asked her what happened. The victim advised that her and her fiance (witness) had arrived at 414 Baker Avenue (Lucas Place) for a child visitation for the offender`s and witness`s child. The victim advised that her and the witness are currently engaged, and the offender is the witness`s ex-wife. The victim advised she parked her vehicle on the street in front of the listed address. The offender made contact with her and the witness from outside next to passenger side of the car. The offender began to argue with the victim and the offender. At one point, the offender began holding onto the vehicle`s windows and trying to get inside of the vehicle. The victim said that the offender was denied entry into the vehicle. The offender then punched the vehicle`s passenger side mirror, bending it backwards. At the time of the incident, it was too dark to determine if there was any damage; however, the victim advised she noticed that the glass was broken in her mirror on today`s date as a result of the incident. The victim advised she would have to pay up to $1000.00 for her deductible before insurance would cover any costs associated with the damage but it is currently unknown what the true cost of the mirror will be. The victim was informed to contact her insurance company and was provided with a case number for her reference. She advised she took pictures of the damage on her phone, which she was encouraged to keep. The victim was advised she would have to follow up with the prosecutor`s office to file charges if she wished to.		EAGLESON, R. C.
