Case #	Description	Officer
	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor
	Higgins said she is paying the loan on the 2008 Impala and the insurance. Higgins argued that her son can not sell the vehicle without the title. Higgins is wanting to legally not have any liability to this vehicle and if possible no further loan or insurance payments. Higgins has viewed the Impala from a distance and says it is damaged considerably, but still functioning. Higgins said she did not authorize her son to sell their shared vehicle. Higgins does not believe Starks is going to insure or register the vehicle her son sold without a title. Higgins understands that her son is saying he sold the car. Higgins understands the vehicle can not be listed as stolen. Higgins wants to protect herself from liability, traffic citations and parking ticket fees. Higgins was advised a misc. incident report would be taken referencing the civil dispute. She was advised to consider sharing this information with her loan provider, insurance, attorney and/or the BMV for discussion. Starks was not reached for comment. From the information provided on today's date this is a civil matter at this moment and not a criminal police matter. No further. Report closed as non-criminal. Sgt. Reported: 07/20/2021. Officers were dispatched to 401 N Burkhardt Road in regard to a customer trouble. Central Dispatch advised that a male was outside in the parking lot causing problems and yelling at people. Upon arriving, I made contact with a Walmart employee. The employee advised me that the offender had been inside of the store threatening other employees. The employee advised that the offender had walked to McDonalds on Burkhardt Road. The offender was last seen wearing all dark clothing and carrying a backpack. Upon arriving at McDonalds, I made contact with the offender, who I recognized by the description that the employee gave me. I asked the offender what happened at Walmart. The offender made several racist remarks about black females that made no sense to me. I asked the offender for his name, which he gave to me. I learned that the offender had an active warrant for his arrest in Vanderburgh County. I proceeded to properly place the offender into custody using double-locked handcuffs. I searched the offender incident to arrest. I removed a backpack that he had been wearing and searched that as well. While I was searching the offender's backpack, the offender told me that he would give me all of his money if I let him go and not be arrested. The offender also repeatedly said "please don't take me to jail" and got loud enough to where it was disturbing guests in McDonalds. I warned the offender to stop yelling. No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to this address in reference to a custody dispute report. Officers arrived on scene and spoke with the RP, Jennifer Parker, who advised that her ex-husband, David Parker, was violating their custody agreement. Officers reviewed a divorce decree provided by Jennifer that stated that David could exercise a clause in the divorce decree that would grant him full custody of the involved children until Jennifer completed a drug screen and proved that she had not been using narcotics. This clause was very broad and only demanded "articulable suspicion" of drug use to enact. Jennifer went and had a drug test completed on July 16th at Medic Onsite that she provided to officers on scene. This drug test was completed and showed negative for all tested substances. Jennifer also completed a mental health evaluation at Brentwood that was completed by Britany Harper on 7/19/2021 that showed no concerns in regards to her mental health. Jennifer has made every attempt to complete all of the outlined requirements outlined in the divorce decree and today was supposed to be a day in which she had custody of the children. She stated that she has been deprived of four such days during this process. A report was completed and Jennifer was recommended to contact juvenile court or a Vanderburgh County Supervisor for further resolution.		MALCOMSON, J.
