LW 2113157 Theft - Auto Parts :6 : F	all of his clothes destroyed. They had all been removed from the closet. Half were laying in the shower and had been drenched in bleach. The other half were laying on the bedroom floor and had also been drenched in bleach. There was also a gallon of milk that had been poured all of the bedroom. The Victim had a large amount of mostly high valued name brand clothes. He estimated the total value to be around $50,000. From the looks of the clothes and the markings already left by the bleach it appears little if any of them will be salvageable. The victim had text messages from the Offender this morning where she told him that she had spilled the bleach by accident. She was also telling him not to call the police or he would be the one to go to jail. There was a DV incident called in by the Offender at this address two nights ago(21-13058). Officers were unable to speak to the male at that time. After speaking with him today a supplement was added to that report. This incident seems to be a continuation from that. While I was on scene the Victim and I noticed that the Offender had tried to keep him out of the apartment by putting liquid nails and caulking all around the door and door jamb. It had not had to set up though before the victim entered. The Victim was given a case number. He was advised on how to follow up with the Prosecutors Office and how to seek a Protective Order.	Jones, Jeffrey H. LW 2113208 Incident Rpt Misc	avoids the feet to the fence so that he did not fall, but then struck his head on a large piece of machinery that was hanging over the fence causing a hazard. The male stated he struck his head on a lift that was hanging into the roadway, and it caused a laceration to his head. The male stated he believes this is extremely dangerous, especially around dark, and that he wanted to make a report to have the machinery moved, but also because he is hoping to have the construction company pay for his medical bill. The male stated he had to go to the hospital and got approximately 5-6 staples in his head for the injury caused by the piece of machinery. The individual was provided with a case number for the report. While still on scene, officers observed a female walking South on Main St who was looking down and then struck her head on the lift machinery. The female immediately leaned over and was caught by her friends. Officers checked on the female, who had a small laceration to the left side of her forehead. The laceration began to swell and bleed, but the female stated she did not need an ambulance and had a first aid kit in her car. The female was added to the report and provided with a case number. Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 925 Lincoln Ave, Evansville, IN, between 20:30, 07/21/2021 and 20:50, 07/21/2021.
