LW 2113449 Criminal Recklessness W/deadly Weapon	Society VICTIM of Criminal Recklessness W/deadly Weapon (C), at N Eleventh Ave/w Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 02:57, 07/25/2021 and 03:00, 07/25/2021. Reported: 07/25/2021. I, Officer Gibson, was working off duty at Chasers when a subject came up to me and stated there was a large fight in the alley toward Sportsman's. I advised dispatch and went toward the alley. I could see a large crowd with several subjects yelling, recording with their cell phones, and some individuals with their shirts off. I saw the listed offender walking toward the crowd and yelling. As the listed offender was yelling and got closer to the crowd I saw him raise a handgun in the air and fire. I ran toward the listed offender but he turned around and ran to a vehicle. The listed offender went to the passenger side of the vehicle, opened the door, reached in, closed the door, then ran to the west in the parking lot. I yelled at the listed offender to stop. The listed offender turned his head and looked at me while he was running, ran a few more feet, then stopped and turned around with his hands up. Back up officers soon arrived and the listed offender was taken into custody. The listed offender had an odor of alcoholic beverages coming from his person, his eyes were red and glassy. The listed offender was transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center on the listed charges.	GIBSON, S. E.
LW 2113468 Motor Vehicle- Habitual Traffic Violator	Society VICTIM of Motor Vehicle- Habitual Traffic Violator (C), at 1199 S Governor St/madison Ave, Evansville, IN, between 15:15, 07/25/2021 and 15:17, 07/25/2021. Reported: 07/25/2021. Officers were on routine patrol in a fully marked police vehicle, when we observed a white male riding a white moped with no plate. Officers initiated a traffic stop near the intersection of south Governor Street and Madison Avenue, and made contact with the driver, Joshua Eakins. Officers retrieved Eakins Indiana Identification card, and ran his driver's status through the Indiana BMV. The Indiana BMV return showed that Eakins had a current driver status of- "Habitual Traffic Violator", which was issued on 04/30/2020, and was valid for 10 years. On the Indiana BMV return, it also showed that Eakins did not have a class "B" endorsement, which is required in order to operate a moped with a driver status of "HTV". Officers placed Eakins into double-locked handcuffs, and read Eakins the Miranda Warning on their department-issued body-worn camera, to which he stated that he understood and wished to speak to us. Officers then asked Eakins if he was aware that he needed a class B endorsement in order to operate a moped with a driver status of "HTV", and Eakins stated that he was not aware, and Eakins also stated that he does not have a class B endorsement. Eakins was transported to Vanderburgh County Jail, and booked in on the above listed charges. The white moped with no plate was towed by Tri-State Towing to 1501 N. Evans Avenue.	MANSFIELD, M.

LW 2113479	Victoria Hare, were in the Wal-Mart Asset Protection (AP) office. According to AP, both offenders had taken clothing items off of the hangers and placed them in a bin inside the cart. Hare then placed a mat over the bin to conceal the items. The offenders then went to the check out. No items in the bin were scanned; there were also other items in the cart that were not scanned. Both offenders then left out the grocery side doors walking past all points of sale. I read both offenders the Miranda Warning. They stated they understood their rights. According to Hare, she simply forgot about the items in the cart. She did not mean to take them without paying for them. According to Gerhardt, he did not know and did not mean to conceal any items. Gerhardt stated that he was not even with Hare when she was checking out. He had gone to look at playing cards. Hare was cited for the theft. EPD records advised that Gerhardt had a previous theft conviction (82C01-1209-FB-01116). Gerhardt was transported to Vanderburgh County Correction Center and booked under the above charge. LW 2113488	was stalking the victim. The victim told Central Dispatch that she would be at the Barnes & Noble waiting for officers. Upon arriving, I met with the victim. The victim informed me that the offender has been stalking her. She advised that she and the offender were in a relationship together which ended in 2017. She further informed me that they had two children together. The victim said she has full legal and physical custody of the children and is staying at the hotel temporarily until her new home is fixed up. She further mentioned that the offender has been following her around everywhere she goes and waits for her to arrive and leave from the hotel. The victim has videos of the offender watching her from the parking lot. I also spoke with the victim on 07/24/2021 about the same issue and even warned the offender (who was on scene at the time) to leave the property. As I was speaking with the victim, the offender called her. The victim answered her phone and advised it was the offender. The victim put the phone on speaker phone for me to hear. The offender begins accusing the victim of having sex with random men and the children in the hotel. The victim remained calm and denied all accusations that the offender had. I told her to hang up the phone. She did so. He immediately called back, but she did not answer. The victim informed me that she used to have a protective order against the offender that has since expired. She advised she is in fear that he is going to harm her. I advised the victim that I would follow her back to the hotel to make sure that she got in safely. Upon arriving, I observed the offender sitting behind the front wheel of a car in the parking lot that he did not own as if he were hiding.
