LW 2111884	on the sidewalk of Fulton Ave. Officers approached and asked the offender why he was on the ground and if he was hurt. The offender was not cooperative with questioning. Officers asked the offender if he had been drinking or ingested other narcotics to which he just smiled and laughed at officer`s questions. Officer observed the offender`s eyes to be pin point, his speech slurred and he talked in a low tone making it difficult for officers to understand his answers. When officers asked his name, he only stated Spencer and "You already know who I am." Officers continued to attempt to identify the subject but he refused to give his last name. Officers advised he would be cited for Public Intoxication and therefore he had to identify himself, however he still refused. The offender stood up at which point officers stated he was being detained and was not allowed to leave. The offender stepped toward officers at which point the officers took control of the offender`s right arm and stopped him from leaving. Officers told him to place his arms behind his back, to which he physically tensed his arm making it difficult for officers to place him in handcuffs. The offender was taken to the ground to further take him into custody. Officers used the necessary amount of force to effect the arrest. The offender`s Indiana ID was located and he was identified as Spencer Cordell. Spencer had two active misdemeanor warrants out of Vanderburgh County. Spencer was transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center and booked on the above listed charges.		REED, S. E.
