LW 2111895	Protective Order. She stated her and her ex-boyfriend have this apartment together but that he moved out yesterday. She had previously been staying in another state for the last month to be away from him. She has pictures, videos, voicemails, and messages prior to that time going back months that show numerous times where he has battered her causing injury and made threats toward her. She stated she never called to report any of the incidents because she was afraid to put him in the system and because he was very manipulative. She is worried now since he has moved out and told her she could have the apartment that he may come back since he stills has a key. When he came yesterday with his family to get his things out nothing got physical but there were several vague threats made that made her uncomfortable. She has a couple friends that are supposed to be coming to stay with her until she can hopefully get a Protective Order. At this point she stated she understands what he was doing to her was not right and that she is willing to do whatever is necessary to file charges on him, get a protective order, and keep herself safe. There are no recent incidents within the last month but she has several pictures of injuries from months ago that show the level of violence the Offender is capable of. The listed IO is the Offenders mother. She has also left threatening messages on the Victim`s phone in the last several months but has never gotten physical with her.		DARAKJIAN, J. J.
