LW 2112311 Theft	with one of their trailers, which is registered to R. Moore`s husband, Stan Moore. They quickly recognized that it was not Stan driving the SUV and that the trailer was apparently being stolen. R. Moore said she got into her vehicle and followed the SUV and trailer across the street to the parking lot of Dollar General, 2250 E Morgan Ave. Braylen Neighbors, another employee, also went over to Dollar General. At Dollar General, R. Moore said she confronted the offender. R. Moore said she began trying to take pictures of the offender`s license plate, at which point the offender asked her what she was doing. When R. Moore told him, the offender told her "you`re not taking pictures of my vehicle" and then began trying to take her phone. R. Moore said the offender attempted to take her cell phone out of her hands by force several times, but she was able to pull the phone back away from him. R. Moore said the offender got into her vehicle, took the keys out of the ignition, and threw them across the parking lot. R. Moore said the offender then got back in the vehicle as a female passenger was yelling "let`s get out of here!" and began fleeing east through the parking lot. While the vehicle was fleeing, the trailer struck R. Moore and forced her to the ground. R. Moore sustained an abrasion to her left elbow during that collision. Neighbors said he grabbed onto the vehicle and was riding along the outside of the vehicle, but he was able to get off and escape injury. The vehicle and trailer were last seen turning west on Morgan Ave. Neighbors and R. Moore were able to obtain descriptions of the suspects, the vehicle, and the license plate. Another witness at Dollar General corroborated their version of events. The events in the Dollar General parking lot were also captured on security camera. S. Moore described the trailer as an enclosed trailer that is silver with red doors. He said it had a commercial shade structure worth approximately $10,000 and two gas grills inside. S. LW 2112347 Forgery	On 07/09/2021 officers were dispatched to a hit and run at 6625 E Lloyd Expressway (Target). The victim stated that she works at Target and came out after her 8 hour shift to find someone had struck her vehicle. The offender left a note on the vehicle with her phone number and the name "Becky". I called the number and received no answer however, the last name on the voicemail stated that the offenders name was Becky Porter. The vehicle had heavy damage to the driver side front bumper. The corner of the bumper was completely crushed and pushed into the driver side door causing the door to only be opened a few inches before becoming jammed. There was heavy red paint transfer on the damaged location of the car. The headlight was shattered and the seam where the driver side front fender meets the door was dented. Before officers arrived the victim went back into Target to see if she could obtain security footage of the incident. The security officer came out and informed me that a red pickup truck occupied by two individuals was parked behind the car in an adjacent parking spot. The pickup truck pulled forward attempting to pull through a vacant spot next to the victims vehicle. As they were leaving the spot the struck the vehicle with the front of their vehicle. The security footage does not show the accident, however the security guard stated that he has very clear footage of the offender along with some other information as she made a purchase while inside the store. The security guard stated that he would save the information to his hard drive and would turn it over to officers if they wished. The victims were given a case number and informed how to proceed forward. Sonic Burkhardt VICTIM of Forgery (C), at 830 N Burkhardt Rd, Evansville, IN, between 21:00, 07/09/2021 and 23:27, 07/09/2021.
