This caused a longer response time to the involved parties of this motor vehicle accident. At approximately 1759 hrs, the offender called 911 dispatch, voicing his displeasure that officers had not made it to this motor vehicle accident. This was after a Vanderburgh County Sheriff's Deputy had stopped with the involved parties, ensured there were no injuries, and assisted them with moving their vehicles out of the road way. At approximately 1815 hours, 911 dispatch received an additional call from the offender, reporting two males were about to fight at this location. Officers were dispatched to this fight and responded accordingly, due to the nature of the run. Officers arrived on scene and could not locate anyone fighting, or anyone matching the description given of the persons described about to fight. Officers spoke to the offender, and to the other involved parties, and came to the conclusion that this was a false 911 call. Officers reported the accident, and took the offender into custody. He was then transported to the VCJ for false informing/reporting. Kolb, Matthew Jason (W M, 47) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-adult Know Presence Of Child Less Than 14 (C), at 4232 Sachem Way, Evansville, IN, between 16:30, 06/30/2021 and 18:30, 06/30/2021. Reported: 06/30/2021. I, Ofc. A. Beaver, was dispatched to a family dispute at 4232-H Sachem Way. Officers Vanfleet and Frazier where the first officers on scene and reported that it was actually going to be a felony domestic violence, not simply a family dispute. When I arrived on scene I spoke to the victim. The victim and offender have a mutual set of triplets. According to the victim, he picked up the offender at her place of work around 15:30 hundred hours. They then returned to the listed address. Around 16:30 a verbal argument ensued. The victim stated that the argument escalated till 18:30 hundred hours. It was around 18:30 hundred hours where the offender kicked the victim in the back of the left leg. The victim stated that it hurt. The victim then stated that the offender grabbed the glasses off the victim's face. The victim stated that the offender made contact with his face when grabbing the glasses. That also hurt. After the physical altercation, the victim walked outside to call the police. When officers arrived, the offender had already left the scene with her three year old granddaughter. Officer Vanfleet spoke with one of the triplets who where on scene. The juvenile confirmed that the offender had kicked the victim. All three of the triplets were in the home at the time of the altercation. Officers were informed that the offender had possibly fled to 4940 -O Lenape Ln. Officers Vanfleet and Frazier checked the address and located the offender. Officer Vanfleet placed the offender into custody. While being placed into custody, the offender was stating that it was all verbal. When I arrived at the Lenape Ln address I read the offender the Miranda Warning. She stated she understood her rights, but did not want to answer questions. The offender stated multiple times that she did not hit him. The victim was given a case number for his reference. The offender was transported to Vanderburgh County Correction Center and booked under the above charge. |   | BEAVER, A. B. |
