LW 2113961 Controlled Substance- Possession Marijuana/hash Oil/hashish/	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possession Marijuana/hash Oil/hashish/ (C), at 999 S Green River Rd/washington Ave, Evansville, IN, between 00:55, 08/02/2021 and 00:56, 08/02/2021. Reported: 08/02/2021. Officers were patrolling the area of S Green River Rd and Covert Ave in full uniform and marked patrol car 2005. Officers noticed a silver Dodge Charger, license plate AJT543, traveling north bound on S Green River Rd with an non-operational license plate light. Officers initiated a traffic stop on S Green River Rd and Washington Ave. Upon initial contact with the driver, Rafael Martinez, officers observed an open container of "Corona Extra" and a bag containing a green leafy substance in the center console of the vehicle. Rafael was removed from the vehicle and taken into custody without incident. Rafael was read Miranda Warning before being questioned. Rafael admitted to consuming alcohol prior to his arrest. The green leafy substance tested positive for marijuana with state kit 15. During incident to arrest officers located a clear plastic bag containing a white powder substance in Rafael's back left pocket. The white powder substance later tested positive for methamphetamines. There are no BMV records of Rafael ever receiving a drivers license. Rafael was transported to VCCC for booking.	CHRISTIAN, D. C.
LW 2113964 Theft	Hayes, Heather Lee (W F, 25) VICTIM of Theft (C), at 2621 Sweetser Ave, Evansville, IN, between 13:00, 07/31/2021 and 18:00, 07/31/2021. Reported: 08/02/2021. LW 2113967 Controlled Substance- Possession Schedule I, Ii, Iii, Iv, V	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possession Schedule I, Ii, Iii, Iv, V (C), at 1905 W Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 07:22, 08/02/2021 and 08:22, 08/02/2021. Reported: 08/02/2021. Officers were dispatched to 1905 W Franklin Street in regard to a person down. The caller advised that a male was passed on in a vehicle on the lot. Upon arriving, officers located the offender passed out in the vehicle. The vehicle's engine was running, but the vehicle was in park. Officers attempted to wake up the offender, but he would not wake up. Officers requested medical assistance for the offender. The offender eventually regained consciousness and stepped out of the vehicle. Officers sat the offender down on the sidewalk so he could be assessed easily by AMR. Officers asked the offender if he had his identification on him. He advised he did not. Officers asked consent to search his vehicle, which he voluntarily gave. In a black backpack located in the front passenger seat, I located a red box containing three blue straws containing residue and several green pills that were broken up. I later identified them as Xanax using drugs.com. I searched the offender incident to arrest and located another broken green pill in the offender's right pocket to his shorts. I also identified that later as Xanax. The offender was	EAGLESON, R. C.

	On 08/01/2021 Officers were dispatched to a person with a gun at 3900 N first Ave (Circle K). Central dispatch advised that a subject is here threatening to "put a clip" in the callers head. Dispatch advised the name of the subject and gave his description as a mixed male wearing a red hoodie. Dispatch advised that the subject left in a red Chevy Cruz with two other people. Officers looked for the subject in the area but were unable to locate the vehicle.
	I arrived on scene and spoke with the manager of the Circle K and reviewed video footage of the incident, however nothing could be seen due to the vehicle being out of frame and being blurry. I spoke to the victim stated that she was currently in the area delivering for Door Dash. While driving, she received messages sent by a female she knows from the offenders facebook asking where she was and that she wanted to meet up to fight. The victim did not request to meet up with the female. The female then stated that if the victim was out doing Door Dash, then they would just come look for her. The victim had a friend and her son riding in the vehicle with her while she was delivering food and the friend stated that she needed to use the restroom. The victim then pulled into the Circle K at 2210 at which point the offender located her through unknown means at 2213.
	The victim went on to tell officers that the offender, the female who was sending her messages on Facebook, and an unknown male had surrounded her car. She stated that the female told her to get of the car and fight. The caller locked the doors and told the female that she did not want to fight in public and that she did not want to go to jail. At this point the unknown male then began jumping on the rear bumper of her vehicle. She then placed the vehicle in reverse to attempt to get the subject off her bumper when the offender told her that " If she moved the car he was going to put a clip in it". She said that she did not see a gun at this time, but the offender was wearing latex gloves and he is known to carry a firearm.
	Another officer on scene spoke to the clerk of the establishment who stated that she did see the offender with a handgun. The victim stated that after this happened the individual got back into a red passenger car and left the scene south down First Ave. The victim was given a case number and informed how to proceed. The victim also had footage of the suspect on her phone which she was advised to keep in the event that detectives wished to view it.

I was dispatched to 1400 E Maryland St in reference to a residential burglary report. I arrived and spoke with the victim, Victoria Tieken.
Tieken said that Ronald Sutton, who lives here off and on and is the son of the property owner (who has dementia and does not live here), allows her to use the detached garage for storage. Tieken said she came over today and noticed that the lock had been cut. There have been multiple other thefts and break-ins on this property, and Tieken had secured the garage door by putting a chain through the door and the adjacent wall and padlocking it. Tieken said she went inside and discovered the garage ransacked and numerous items missing. The offenders also pried open the lock of an interior door in the garage which leads to another room where items were taken. Tieken said she was missing approximately $1000 in jewelry, an unknown value of foreign and collectible coins, and a pair of $2000 shoes she won at an auction.
I called and spoke with Sutton, who confirmed that he stays at the property off and on, that he had not cut the lock or taken items, and that he had not given anyone else permission to cut the lock, enter the garage, or take items from the garage.
