Reported: 08/22/2021. The neighbor called the VI and told her he observed her ex-husband enter the house via the backdoor. The VI called police advising the same and stated that the OF even called her, bragging about being in her house. Officers arrived on scene, knocked and announced several times, but received no answer. I then called and spoke with the VI. The VI stated that she knows he's still inside, because he's out of minutes and is still texting her. The VI also stated that he knew the cops were outside. I told the VI that without a key, we would have to force entry to clear the house. The VI stated, "go ahead, I give you permission to force entry." I then asked the VI how long they had been legally divorced. The VI stated since 03/2018. I asked if he had any legal rights to the house, in which she stated no. The VI also advised that she has a bar/ban order on him, barring him from her residence. I called records and there was no bar/ban on the OF for this address in RMS, nor were there any active restraining orders. I then called Sgt. S. Smith and briefed him. Sgt. S. Smith gave permission to force entry. I then called for a K-9 and other assisting officers. Once K-9 arrived on scene, I briefed him as to what I had and he also spoke with the VI to once again, reaffirm that the OF had no legal rights to the house and that she was fine with us forcing entry. Once Dep. Chamber s retrieved his K-9 and approached the door, the OF heard the dog and advised he was coming out. Officers then cuffed him and I placed him in my car, till the wagon arrived. During this, the OF continually begged me to look at his phone, he had text messages that show she's only doing this because the VI thinks he's cheating on her with another girl. The OF advised that he and the VI are still in a		PYLANT, R. E.

Finally, I decided to look in his phone, where I did observe several recent messages, messages that were only hours to 48 hrs old, where the VI is angry with the OF, believing he is having an affair on her and messages where he's accusing the VI of sleeping around on him and talking to other guys. One message, the VI told the OF that he should know better, because she wants to marry him again and she still loves him. During this, one of the OF's friends drove by and he also confirmed that the OF and VI are always in an off again, on again relationship. The VI's sister arrived on scene to take care of the house and she also stated that they are always on again, off again, but that's because the OF is a great manipulator. With the this new information, I did not feel comfortable making a custodial arrest for Residential Entry. I then called and spoke with Sgt. S. Smith. He too agreed and thought it best not to arrest, instead, file a report and send it to the DV Unit. I then released the OF and served him with a bar/ban order for this address. I advised the OF if he is caught back on this property, he would be arrested for Trespass. The OF stated he understood and walked away. I then called records and had them put the alert on the OF.	TAYLOR, J. D.

Reported: 08/22/2021. The VI works at Apex behavioral Health and serves in the capacity as a caregiver. Today, the VI was transporting the OF to Walmart to get a few items. The OF is severely autistic, but is high functioning. The OF became very upset with the VI, because she wouldn't let her buy a movie. While they were in line at the Burger King on Burkhardt, the OF started smacking, scratching, and trying to bit the right arm of the VI. The VI had to pull over three times to calm the OF down, before calling police. When I arrived on scene, I clearly observed several scratches, whelps, and open cuts all over the VI's right arm. The VI did not want to press charges and her boss showed up on scene to assist in transporting the OF back to her care facility. When I spoke with the OF, she was crying and very remorseful for what she did. The OF then left with the VI and her supervisor.	PYLANT, R. E.
