Officers were dispatched to 906 Pfeiffer Road in regard to a found property. The reporter called 911 and advised that she found a rifle in the bushes next to her home. Upon arriving, I met with the reporter. The reporter advised she was outside of her apartment (906) on the south side of the building smoking a cigarette. The reporter advised she flicked some of the ashes off of her cigarette in the yard, which landed in some bushes in between her apartment and 902 Pfeiffer Road. Worrying about catching the yard on fire, she looked through the bushes to ensure the ash was put out when she observed a rifle laying underneath of one of the bushes. The reporter then called 911. I inspected the rifle and observed that it was an Iver Johnson Arms .22 caliber wood stock, metal barrelled rifle. The rifle was unloaded, but the bolt was originally pushed forward. I cleared the weapon by pulling the bolt back and subsequently off altogether. I observed there was a serial number on the bottom of the barrel located near the end of the hand grip. I ran the rifle`s serial number through Central Dispatch, who advised the rifle was not stolen. The rifle was placed into found property. The owner of the rifle is unknown at this time.		EAGLESON, R. LW 2114089 Criminal Mischief	with the victim, E. Shults, and her husband, M. Shults for a hit and run with property damage report. E. Shults stated her vehicle was hit by a large flat bed truck, and after the incident the truck left the scene. E. Shults stated she and her husband were traveling southbound on S. Green River Rd this afternoon. She reported they were approaching the intersection of SR 66 and S. Green River Rd and they were located in the lefthand lane to continue straight on S. Green River Rd. She explained traffic had slowed, but vehicles continued to merge from her lane and into the turn lane that was located to the left of her lane. Those vehicles merging were merging to turn left onto eastbound SR 66. She relayed the suspect merged into the turn lane, but in doing so the suspect collided with the rear, driver`s side fender area of her vehicle. E. Shults stated a standard passenger vehicle may have successfully merged into the turn lane, but because the suspect was driving a large flat bed truck there was not enough space for the suspect to merge without colliding with her vehicle. She reported the suspect did not stop after the incident and merged onto SR 66. The suspect was last seen going eastbound on SR 66. E. Shults had black scuff marks or paint transfer to her rear, driver`s side fender area. The suspect was driving a large, flat bed towing wrecker. E. Shults was not able to obtain the company name or a description of the driver. She was able to obtain the suspect`s license plate number. She was provided with a case number.		BLAIR, J.
