LW 2114837 Communication- Intimidation	Blair, Jaylen (W M, 23) VICTIM of Communication- Intimidation (C), at 1160 E Riverside Dr, Evansville, IN, between 16:15, 08/12/2021 and 16:16, 08/12/2021. Reported: 08/12/2021. Officers were on routine patrol, and observed two loose dogs running in the middle of the street, in front of 1160 E. Riverside Dr. Officers exited their vehicle, and were able to contain one of the dogs. Because the dog was severely underfed, had sores, and fleas, Animal Control was contacted. Animal control arrived and took custody of one of the dogs, and then learned that two more dogs were located in the backyard. Officers went into the back yard of 1160 E Riverside Dr. with Animal Control in order to assist in the investigation. During the investigation, no owner of the dogs were located, as the males in the backyard stated that they were watching them for a friend. While Animal Control was escorting the last dog off the property, the offender, Michael Witt, told Officers that in 72 hours he would have a gun waiting for them, and that it was a direct threat. Witt also stated that if Officers took the dogs then we would be dead and all of our family would be dead, as he was making a shooting motion with his hands. Witt was placed into double-locked handcuffs, and escorted to the front of the residence. While being escorted, Witt was unsteady on his feet, and a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage was emitting from his breath. Witt was cursing loudly, and was told numerous times to lower his voice, to which he continued to yell and scream, causing a disturbance. Witt was transported to the Vanderburgh County Jail on the above listed charges, and Officers completed a separate report in reference to the animal neglect, which is currently still under investigation.		MANSFIELD, M.

Reported: 08/12/2021. I was dispatched to 3713 Harvard Ct in reference to a theft report. I arrived and spoke with the reporting person, Amber Luft. Luft said that the listed offender, who she had been in some sort of a relationship with, had driven off with her purse, cell phone, and keys in his car without her permission. I arrived, gathered information for the report, and left the scene. Luft called back less than 30 minutes later stating that the offender had returned to her house and given her all of the items back. Luft further stated that the offender had left a small bag containing a baggie of narcotics and a smoking pipe along with a note reading "Your love is the only drug I need" on her front porch. Luft said she has never used narcotics of any kind and has never seen the offender use narcotics. I retrieved the note, smoking pipe, and baggie containing a white, crystalline substance from Luft's front porch. The substance later field-tested positive for methamphetamine with a field weight of 5.0 grams. The items were submitted to evidence. Luft stated that she no longer wanted to pursue theft charges against the offender.	HACKWORTH, N.

Reported: 08/12/2021. Officers were dispatched to 631 Walnut Avenue (Subway) in reference to a commerical burglary alarm. Dispatch advised the alarm was for glass breakage and multiple interior motion alarms. Officers quickly arrived on scene and found the north door to the business to be shattered. A perimeter was set up and K9 responded in an attempt to track for the suspect. K9 tracked to the apartment complex directly to the south of the Subway but could not locate anyone. The owner of the business arrived on scene and officers cleared the business. No one was located inside the business, however, officers observed a landscaping brick in the lobby of the restaurant that was used to break the glass door. The owner of the Subway was able to confirm that no money was missing from the cash registers. Officers then located damage to the office door at the rear of the restaurant as if the suspect had attempted to gain access to the locked office. Upon reviewing surveillance camera footage, it was discovered that a black male dressed in a short-sleeve black shirt and dark-colored pants with a red hat and face covering arrived on foot at the Subway from the area of Garvin Street and Walnut Avenue. The male then approached the restuarant and threw a brick through the glass door. The male then entered the restaurant and quickly made his way to the office door. After attempting to break the door open, the male was unsuccessful and quickly exited the Subway, traveling west around the building and then south through the church parking lot behind the Subway. Crime Scene Detective Decamps arrived to process the scene, as well as Detective McCormick. The owner of the Subway		FORSTON, J. L.
